Chance Seen For Upsetting Turnpike Panel

Bill Bringing Change In Operations Rules Said Gaining Favor

COLUMBUS (AP) — Some observers are saying it looks like a legislative bid to capture authority over future Ohio turnpikes has more steam behind it than when it was introduced last Jan. 5.

This week, for the first time, some legislators were making guarded predictions the Republican-controlled General Assembly might approve the proposal to put route-fixing and bond-issuing authority in the hands of a committee dominated by legislators.

But the bill, if it ever reaches the governor's desk, is expected to run smack into a veto by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Whether supporters of the proposal to trim the turnpike commission's wings could muster enough votes to override a Lausche veto is quite another matter. But the week's developments, which have made mincemeat of party lines, appear to foreshadow the first old-fashioned donnybrook of the 101st General Assembly.

The bill was introduced by Sen. David McK. Ferguson (R-Guernsey) on the first day of the session at which the Senate opened the door to proposed laws.

AT ITS FIRST few hearings, it appeared to have little support except for the author, Ferguson is chairman of the Senate Highways Committee which is handling this bill. The measure languished for weeks, then abruptly was assigned to a subcommittee. That group added several features, most of them proposed by Sen. J. E. Simpson (R-Hardin).

Both Ferguson and Simpson have been consistent critics of turnpike legislation and of the manner in which the turnpike commission conducts its business.

Senate Minority Leader Joseph W. Bartunek (D-Cuyahoga) swung his support behind the bill Monday night in a surprise move a few hours after he received a letter from Lausche opposing it.

The move was all the more surprising in view of Bartunek's one-time close personal friendship with the turnpike commission chairman, James W. Shocknessy. Bartunek's stand could result in Democratic support for the measure on the Senate floor. It now appears the highways committee will recommend its passage although two members, Sen. Lowell Fess (R - Greene and Stephen Olenick (R-Mahoning), say flatly they will oppose it.

So far, no member of the turnpike commission or any of its representatives has said a public (Please Turn to Page Twelve)

Meanderings

By Wash Fayette

Remember all those colored balloons the kids were holding on strings or that you watched rise and drift out of sight into the wild blue yonder last Friday?

I'll bet that you wondered: (How far will they drift?) (2) Will anyone ever find them? (3) Will anyone ever write back to say one was found?

The Murphy Store gave away 5,000 of them the day the remodeled and enlarged store was opened but word has come back from just one of the hundreds that must have floated out of sight.

A letter bearing a Parkersburg, W. Va., postmark came to the store saying:

"We caught a balloon yesterday (April 2) from Murphy's Store from Washington C. H., Ohio. We live 6 miles south of Parkersburg in what is known as Lost Pavement."

The letter was signed "Norman Badgley."

Russell Hinchey, the manager of the store here, said he was writing to Mr. Badgley to express his appreciation of the word from the balloon and that he had sent his letter on to the Murphy Store headquarters in McKeesport, Pa.

Inside the letter from Badgley was a piece of the yellow rubber balloon on which the Murphy Store name was printed. A fringe had been cut all around the edge of the little fragment of the balloon; it looked like a child had gone all around it with scissors making scores of cuts about a inch and a half long. It is possible that the fringe was caused when the balloon burst, but it did not have exactly that appearance.

Finding the balloon near Parkersburg, well over 100 miles southeast of here, gives rise to some interesting speculation about air currents far above the earth on that sunny Friday. Almost without exception the balloons lost here went high into the air and drifted out of sight to the northeast.

Nature Breaks Records For Breaking Records On Weather for Spring

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mother Nature may be breaking all records this spring for breaking all records.

Spring traditionally comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. So far this year, things have been in reverse order.

In the first weeks of March, most of the nation was lulled by a record warm sun. St. Louis baked at 86 degrees March 10; Dallas sweltered at 94 one day later; it was 61 as far north as Muskegon, Mich.

Heat records for the season were toppled again in many areas a few days later. Fruit trees blossomed and flowers burst into beauty for spring festivals.

But all this was cruel deceit. There followed probably the worst series of spring cold waves ever recorded. Blizzards paralyzed parts of the North, and continued even through this first week of April. Record-breaking freezes spread across the South, crippling crops, fruit trees and flowers.

There were also a rash of tornadoes, duststorms, gales, and some severe floods along the Ohio.

In the fourth week of March alone, the U. S. Weather Bureau here attributed 65 deaths and millions of dollars damage to the furies of the weather.

The unprecedented outbreaks piled 24 inches of snow on Sheridan, Wyo., in 24 hours this week, breaking all records. Southern New England in April is digging out of a 20-inch snow, heaviest of the year.

On March 27, one week after the formal beginning of spring, New Orleans at 30 degrees shivered under the coldest temperatures in four years. The same city broke a heat record for the season only 10 days earlier, with 87 degrees.

What sent Mother Nature on such a rampage?

Weather Bureau forecaster Jerome Namias today blamed those mysterious "jet streams" which circle the globe up to 40,000 feet high. This is his explanation:

A light change in the west-to-east pattern of the jet stream moved a huge, frigid air mass over Canada.

But instead of letting it break out in waves across this country, as it usually does, the jet streams changed their pattern. They kicked up tremendous speeds of over 200 m.p.h. Their north-south waves flattened out. The jet streams, in effect, formed a barrier to further southward movement of this cold air.

Meanwhile, warm air from the Gulf spread farther north. An extreme contrast developed.

Then, like a delayed action bomb, the jet streams lost their fierce eastward momentum. The north-south waves developed into big peaks and troughs, which began moving eastward. The pent-up air in Canada, long held in a deep freeze, was loosed on the United States in a series of paralyzing blasts.

What will the jet streams do next?

Namias expects the waves to continue sliding eastward. That should bring more cool air to the extreme northeast and to the Southeast as far around as Texas. Warmer than usual air should settle over the Northern Plains.

This contrast (warmer air in most of the North and cooler air in the South) might continue to act as a storm-maker. But weather officials hardly expect an extended repeat performance.

UAW and GM Resume Talks On Wage Deal

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today resumed its effort to write a guaranteed annual wage into its contracts with the nation's automakers.

The union is bargaining with General Motors on a new agreement to cover 325,000 hourly rated GM employees. The union's five-year pact with the corporation expires May 29.

The GM contract might set the pattern for the entire industry and have a far-reaching impact on the nation's economy.

Harry W. Anderson, GM vice president in charge of personnel, sounded a cautious note of optimism before yesterday's 4½-hour opening conference.

He said the company was "going into these negotiations with the idea of doing the best we can to get a satisfactory settlement."

"I'm sure," he added, "the union boys are doing the same thing."

John W. Livingston, UAW vice president and director of the union, "there was harmony at the session" in which "we briefly reviewed orally a number of the issues." What the issues reviewed were, neither side would say.

Livingston said the "meeting marked the beginning of one of the most important negotiations these parties have ever participated in."

Beyond Panties Are 3-Cent Stamps

BALTIMORE (AP)—You can get a fashion show for the price of a 3-cent stamp at the branch post office of the Northwood shopping center here.

The post office was evicted from more conventional quarters in the shopping center and accepted an invitation to set up shop in a small room at the rear of a women's clothing store.

To get there, the customer must pass displays of "campus panties," silk stockings, perfumes, "shorty" nightgowns, girdles and bras "custom contoured for you alone."

It's something not every man can take, but the clerk on duty says she is keeping "very busy during the lunch-hour rush."

CHRISTENDOM OBSERVES CHRIST'S DEATH ON CROSS

Church Messages Starting Today In Record-Herald

The first of a series of weekly non-denominational inspirational messages appears in today's Record-Herald on page 5.

These messages, which will be different each week and with different attractive religious art, are endorsed by the Ministerial Association and individual members of the clergy everywhere. They are designed to encourage the people of this community to support and attend the church of their choice on Sunday.

In addition to the general religious message, there will be a weekly calendar of Bible reading suggestions.

They are to appear every Friday with the announcements of time of services of the different churches.

They are made possible by 32 business firms here.

Bloodmobile Coming Apr. 28

Donor Recruiting Up To Lionesses

While Red Cross fund-raisers plug along slowly toward a goal of $9,200, plans for recruiting donors for the regular call of the bloodmobile here April 28 today were taking form.

This time, the mobile unit is to be set up in the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Market and Hinde Streets.

The Lioness Club, which in two previous occasions has recruited enough donors to go over the 150-pint quota, is behind the effort this time.

The Graduate Sorority sponsored the bloodmobile's call last January when 163 pints were donated—13 more than the quota.

This will be the first time the mobile unit has been set up in the First Presbyterian Church and plans are being made for it to go there for the remaining five calls this year, Tom Mark, the chairman of the blood program, said.

Essentially the same staff of volunteer workers is to be at the church to lend a hand to the trained technicians that always accompany the bloodmobile.

The increased use being made of blood in hospitals makes the need for blood as urgent as ever before.

Records of Memorial Hospital here show that more blood from the Red Cross blood bank was used there last year than was given to the blood bank by Fayette Countians.

Residents of Fayette County got that blood, if they needed it, without cost, except for the fee for administering it.

Part of the money contributed during the annual fund raising campaigns (this year's is now in progress) goes to pay for the blood that Fayette Countians are entitled to use.

Mrs. Emma Griffiths, the president of the Lioness Club, said "all members of the club have a job to do in recruiting donors."

And, in view of past successes of the club, there was a note of optimism in her statement.

Ex-Ohio Patrolman Declared Guilty

IRONTON (AP)—A Lawrence county jury has found a former state highway patrolman guilty of second degree manslaughter in the hit-run traffic death of Coal Grove Policeman Carl Green, 30.

Judge Warren S. Earhart gave Robert Brinkley, 29, of Gallipolis three days in which to appeal.

Brinkley testified he was not driving when Green was struck and killed March 5, 1954. The policeman was standing beside a car he had stopped on U. S. 52, near Ironton.

ON YOUR MARK! Cherry Hill Elementary School youngsters getting ready (top picture) for the Easter egg scramble Thursday afternoon on the hill outside the school. Each teacher threw colored candy eggs down the hill. Then she gave her class the signal for "operation scramble," (center picture) and they're off. Each child carried a paper bag for gathering the eggs (bottom picture) when it was everyone for himself. It's a catch as catch can as the scramble continues. Soon after not an egg was to be found. Teachers later hid more eggs on the grounds and the kids had another frolic hunting them. It's an annual affair of Cherry Hill and both pupils and teachers love it. The eggs being candy made pretty good eating too. (Record-Herald photo)

Sparkman Urging Caution

Air Buildup by Reds Watched

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) said today it would be "folly" to allow the Chinese Communists to continue building up air strength opposite Formosa.

"once it becomes apparent their purpose is to launch an attack."

But unless President Eisenhower decides "that the concentration of the United States should not be allowed to bomb air bases and other installations reportedly under construction along the South China coast."

One Republican senator asking anonymity said the Eisenhower administration is scrutinizing information from Formosa that the reported buildup could give Red China's air force supremacy over the Formosa Strait.

Gen. Sun Li-Jen, Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek's personal chief of staff, said in Formosa yesterday that when the Communists have completed building new jet airfields they can challenge the combined air and navy superiority of the Nationalists and the U. S.

Administration officials, questioned on Gen. Sun's statement, said only that all questions involved in a buildup of Communist forces along the coast have been under study for many weeks. These officials reflected no special sense of alarm or urgency.

Nationalist China has agreed, in connection with its mutual defense treaty with the United States, not to launch any attacks against the mainland without U. S. agreement.

bombing forays over the mainland, Sparkman said, Red China certainly would retaliate. That would "almost insure war," Sparkman said, and he continued:

"It would be folly, however, to let a buildup continue beyond a stage where their purpose is apparent and the threat real. This will bear close watching and I am certain the administration is watching it."

"If the President comes to the conclusion that the Communist purpose is to invade Formosa and represents a real threat, then it would be up to us to act."

In Taipei, Formosa, the Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry said today the Communists began using their big newly built air base at Luchiao, 200 miles north of the Matsui Islands, April 3.

The base is reported the largest and best in the whole of Red China and is usable by every type of plane from jets to heavy bombers.

The ministry also said the Reds airfield at Fochow, 40 miles west of the Matsui Islands and 120 miles northwest of Formosa, is being remodeled. It added there are indications that an airfield at Swatow, 120 miles southwest of Quemoy which is directly across the Strait of Formosa, is being revamped.

The ministry's statement on the Fochow airport followed press reports that its runways are being lengthened for the use of jets. These reports said quarters for thousands of workers lined the road to the field and at night more than 200 trucks carried construction materials to the site.

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Education Assn.'s executive committee, meeting here, has gone on record in favor of new taxes to aid schools and a statewide bond issue for school construction.

COLUMBUS (AP)—State liquor department investigators will not be allowed to drink intoxicants while on duty under a new department rule. An investigator making a purchase believed illegal may not consume the drink.

Faithful Attend Services On Good Friday

Sunday Slated To Bring Rites Commemorating The Wonder of Easter

By The Associated Press
Christians around the world made pilgrimages to Good Friday services today, commemorating the death of Christ on the cross.

And on Sunday, the story of Christ's resurrection will ring out across the land in music and in words, in pageants, parades and stirring panoramas.

Today, in village church and vast cathedral, the faithful gathered for centuries-old ceremonies. Thousands from many lands assembled at St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City to attend the solemn mass of the Presanctified Host.

In the Holy Land, some 5,000 pilgrims, many of whom had to pass through the no man's land dividing warring Israel and Jordan, flocked into Arab Jerusalem.

Once again they followed the narrow, twisting cobblestone Via Dolorosa—the Way of the Cross.

GATHERED according to nationality, each group bore at its head a massive cross as they halted briefly at each of the 14 stations of the cross.

The procession formed a few hundred yards inside Jerusalem's east wall, where Christ was tried before Pontius Pilate. His route followed the path which tradition says Christ's burdened steps took to Calvary, the site now of the sprawling Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

In the United States, Roman Catholic and Protestant churches from coast to coast threw open their doors to Good Friday services. Many scheduled three-hour sermons commemorating the hours on the cross.

On Sunday, from the high vistas of the Rockies to the quiet woods of New England, hundreds of thousands of Americans will gather under the open sky to celebrate the wonder of Easter.

There will be colorful, moving services in parks and stadiums, on mountaintops and canyon rims and waterfront piers, besides splashing waterfalls, in churches, theaters, cemeteries and city squares.

Many of the spectacles will begin before dawn, and the drama of Christ's passage through the night of death into the splendor of a new life will be retold as the sun rises on the land.

More than 75,000 people are expected for pre-dawn services in a huge natural amphitheater in Oklahoma's Wichita Mountains. A cast of more than 1,000 will take part in the pageant, called "The Pathways to Immortality."

AN OCEAN of calla lilies and people (about 75,000 lilies and 20,000 people) are expected to fill Hollywood Bowl for the 35th annual sunrise services there.

Another throng of approximately 35,000 will jam Salem Square in Winston-Salem, N. C., where Moravian Bishop J. Kenneth Pfohl, for the 25th consecutive year will intone at sunup: "The Lord is risen." Then a procession will move to the Moravian graveyard known as God's Acre.

At the Grand Canyon in Arizona, former Gov. Howard Pyle, now administrative assistant to President Eisenhower, will narrate the Easter story, against a breathtaking background of earth and music.

Long before dawn, up to 7,000 worshippers are expected to gather in the famed Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge, N. H.

Unusual church arrangements have been made at Mansfield, Vt., for a ski tow lift to take worshippers to the top of Mt. Mansfield for sunrise worship, breakfast at a ski lodge, then a ski run down the slope. Nonskiers will be taken down by the lift.

In an "ocean stadium" half a mile at sea on a pier off Atlantic City, N. J., thousands of others will gather.

Principal services in Washington, D. C., will be in Arlington Cemetery, at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital, the Carter Barron Amphitheater and the Navy Medical Center at nearby Bethesda.

Parent-Teacher Group Meets

Make Plans For Future Activities

And a good time was had by all, as the old saying goes, at Thursday night's meeting of the Memorial School Parent-Teacher Organization.

Some major business was disposed of and there were a lot of laughs in the program. When it was time to go home, everyone was full of sandwiches and salad.

The evening started off, as usual with the devotional period.

Mrs. Stanley Graulich, the president, opened the meeting with some thoughts about Good Friday and then Mrs. L. P. Brackney conducted the devotionals and read "Legend of the Dogwood." Then the Lord's Prayer was recited in unison.

Mrs. Richard Snyder gave the report of the secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Maynard Draise reported for the card and flower committee.

Reports were read on the afternoon's Easter party for the pupils that was given by the room mothers.

Contributions of $5 each were voted for the Crippled Children's fund and the March of Dimes.

Prin. Elden Whiteside outlined plans for the Arbor Day observance that are now beginning to take form.

Mrs. Elmo Purdom, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Alvin Writsel were appointed to the nominating committee and instructed to bring in a slate of candidates for next year's officers at the next meeting.

AFTER CHECKING over the treasurer's report, the PTO voted to buy some athletic and recreation equipment, mostly for playground use. It is to include, among many other things, a volleyball set.

Miss Gretchen Darlington, the senior nurse of the county Department of Health, explained the nationwide program for the vaccination of all first and second grade children in the campaign against polio if the Salk vaccine is approved officially after tests now in progress are completed.

Promotion exercises for the eighth grade pupils are to be held at the next meeting of the PTO. The date for this meeting has not yet been set.

On the table decorating committee for the May meeting were named Mrs. Marshall Frock, chairman, Mrs. Howard Burke, Mrs. Lloyd Cartwright and Mrs. Tom Maddux. On the social committee for the meeting were placed Mrs. Martin O'Call, chairman, Mrs. Naomi Reif, Mrs. Maynard Draise, Mrs. Elmo Purdom and Mrs. Andrew Hutton.

The PTO always places considerable emphasis on the eighth grade promotion and this year is to be no exception, a member of the committee said.

WITH THE serious business disposed of, the meeting turned into lighter things—the style show that was put on by six women of the PTO.

They admitted that they may not have provided very many good tips of the latest styles, but there could be no disputing the hilarity they created.

Models for the style show were Mrs. Graulich, Mrs. Reif, Mrs. Earl Allison, Mrs. Draise, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Cartwright.

Mrs. O'Call was the narrator and mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. John Rhoads, the music teacher, played the piano for the musical background for the entertainment.

The program was not all ridiculous for there was a duet, "Melody of Love," sung by Mrs. O'Call and Mrs. Hilbert Meyer and a reading, "Mandy's Wedding" by Mrs. Wayne McArthur.

The Easter hat parade brought the entertainment to a close and then everyone went from the auditorium with its stage upstairs where refreshments were served.

Israel reports that 40,000 tourists, including 14,000 Americans visited that country in 1954.

Fish and Game Hearing Monday

Sportsmen's Group Is To Meet First

Monday night's meeting of the Fayette County Fish and Game Association is going to start "right on time," Frank Boylan, the president said and then explained that the session would start promptly at 7:30 o'clock so that the association's business could be disposed of in time for the start at 8:30 o'clock of the hearing on fish and game laws that is sponsored by the state Division of Wildlife.

Both meetings are to be held, one right after the other, in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

At the association's regular meeting, which is to be packed into an hour, several committee reports are to be made.

One of them will be by the committee that has been planning the incorporation of the association as a non-profit organization under state laws.

The committee that was delegated to try to find a site in the country suitable for a headquarters and lodge for the association.

Another committee is to report on the progress it has made in carrying out the farm pond program.

AT THE OPEN public meeting that is to follow the association's business meeting—and in the same auditorium—a representative of the Division of Wildlife will be there to read the draft of the hunting laws for 1955 and then hear pro con views about them.

It is at this meeting, President Boylan explained, that the sportsmen here have their opportunity to voice their gripes and complaints about the hunting and fishing regulations and make suggestions for changes.

After a free and open discussion, he said, two representatives will be appointed.

The representatives are to register the views of the Fayette County group with the district meeting. Then representatives from the district are to be named to go to the state meeting.

Recommendations made by the state meeting, Boylan said, are used as a basis for the laws that govern hunting and fishing.

Sportsmen consider this public meeting one of the most important sports and a big turnout is anticipated.

RIPLEY — Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad officials reported derailment of 11 cars of a C&O freight train across the Ohio River in Kentucky early today. No injuries were reported.

U. S., French Plan Parley On Indochina

WASHINGTON — American and French officials are reported planning to meet April 20 to seek better coordination of their sometimes conflicting policy in Red-threatened Indochina.

The sessions probably will be held in Washington, although the French are said to be pressing Paris as the site. Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. will head the American delegation.

One of the major aims will be to seek a clearer French-American understanding of moves to be taken to bolster the anti-Communist government of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem in Southern Viet Nam.

France is formally pledged to support the American-backed Diem but most American officials believe the French could do far more to insure his success.

Ever since Diem took over control of the government he has been embroiled in numerous arguments with dissident groups having private armies.

There has been a brief armed struggle between troops loyal to Diem and forces of one of these groups. Special U. S. Ambassador J. Lawton Collins arranged a truce in the fighting for a week.

A major difference between French and American officials has been an effort by France to make some sort of economic deals with the Communists in Red-controlled North Viet Nam.

COLUMBUS — Decline in employment of minors in Ohio during 1954 broke off a long, upward trend, the State Department of Industrial Relations reported today.

The child labor analysis shows minor employment dropping from 95,062 in 1953 to 57,668 in 1954, a decline of 39 percent. Figures are the number of work permits issued minors under 18.

The analysis shows employment of boys dropped off more than the employment of girls last year. Work permits issued boys went down 43 per cent as against a drop of 35 per cent for girls. The director commented that an unusually large decrease in minors working in manufacturing industries, where mostly boys are employed, helps explain this difference. Other facts brought out in the analysis:

1. Girls are steadily becoming a larger proportion of the total. 2. About one-third of work permits are issued for regular full-time employment and the rest for part-time or vacation work. 3. Heaviest employment of minors is in the retail trade.

Representatives Of 20 Counties At Meeting Here

Plant and Maintenance Men From Hospital Association Attend

Fayette County Memorial Hospital has host this week to 25 representatives from 20 counties representing the Plant and Maintenance Section of the Central District Council of the Ohio Hospital Association, who held their bi-monthly meeting here.

The meeting was occupied with a general discussion of the problems relating to plant and maintenance of hospitals. The presiding officer was Earl J. Williams, chief engineer of Mercy Hospital at Portsmouth. The program was of an educational character.

THE PRINCIPAL speaker for the session was Robert Jones Mayfield, a native of Jackson, Ohio, who is on the staff of the community relations department of the Goodyear Atomic Corporation with headquarters at the atomic plant near Waverly.

One of the high points of his talk to the assembled hospital representatives was the implication of the use of by-products of atomic energy in connection with hospital work.

Mayfield is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, a member of the Jackson Junior Chamber of Commerce and director of the Jackson Red Cross Chapter.

During the meeting held at the hospital here a tour of the entire plant was made by all the guests. This elicited many compliments regarding the hospital plan here, its equipment, its upkeep and its general program of activities.

JOHN WILLIAMS, maintenance superintendent of the Memorial Hospital here, received recognition during the election of officers of the group, by being chosen vice-president. Other officers elected were E. G. Enderle, president, and James C. Lawson, secretary. The outgoing president is Earl Williams, chief engineer at Mercy Hospital at Portsmouth.

Enderle is superintendent of maintenance at Benjamin Franklin Hospital at Columbus. Lawson is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the Ohio State University campus at Columbus.

Governor's Award Goes To Peale

COLUMBUS (P)—The governor's Award for 1954, Ohio's highest tribute to a native son, has been awarded Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, author of "The Power of Positive Thinking."

The New York City pastor was given a plaque for "advancement of Ohio's prestige." Gov. Frank J. Lausche made the presentation yesterday before the Advertising Club of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Peale is a native of Bowersville, Greene County, and a former newsman in Findlay.

Ohio Real Estate Panel Honored

COLUMBUS (P)—The Ohio Assn. of Real Estate Boards was honored yesterday for having moved and preserved the Ohio Company land office in Marietta, one of the first real estate offices in the country.

The 166-year-old building was moved last October from the banks of the Ohio River to the Marietta Campus Martius Museum. The National Assn. of Real Estate Boards gave the Ohio Association a plaque for its efforts.

Atomic Workers Get Pay Boost

PORTSMOUTH (P)—Goodyear Atomic Corp. reached an agreement today on its first contract with a CIO union representing production workers at the Waverly atomic energy plant.

The company and the union, the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International, announced an across-the-board five cents an hour wage increase will be made effective following ratification of the contract by the union and approval by the Atomic Energy Commission. Present pay rates are varied.

The accidental death rates of passengers on U. S. railroads in 1954 was .07 per 100 million passenger miles.

Plans for Sign-up Of Members For C of C Take Form

Plans for the Chamber of Commerce member sign-up today were beginning to take on definite form.

The four days of May 17, 18, 19 and 20 have been set as the time for the concentrated campaign. Each day is to start with a breakfast at the Washington Hotel Coffee Shop when the campaign for the day will be outlined and the reports on the previous day's sign-up will be made and progress checked.

A sort of victory dinner has been slated for the night of the final day—May 17—at Anderson's Drive-in Restaurant.

Although there has been no announcement yet, it is understood that there will be a prize worth going after for the individual who signs up the most members.

Supt. Smith Back From School Meeting

Supt. W. A. Smith of the Washington C. H. schools today is back in his office cleaning up the business that had accumulated while he was in Cleveland for the annual four-day meeting of the American Association of School Administrators.

He was called on to serve as the chief consultant for a group that undertook an investigation and study of public relations in connection with public schools. He said he had received many inquiries (word from Cleveland said many compliments) on his "School Report Card" that appears regularly in the Record-Herald and the picture sequence and tape-recorded narration of the Washington C. H. High School curriculum.

Supt. Smith said that while in Cleveland, he had an opportunity to talk with a number of school administrators—and a couple of state Department of Education officials—about some of the problems facing the schools here. While none of them gave the full solution to the problems, he said he had picked up some very good ideas from experiences of administrators in other schools.

JOHN WILLIAMS, maintenance superintendent of the Memorial Hospital here, received recognition during the election of officers of the group, by being chosen vice-president. Other officers elected were E. G. Enderle, president, and James C. Lawson, secretary. The outgoing president is Earl Williams, chief engineer at Mercy Hospital at Portsmouth.

Sales Tax Again Ahead In County

Again Fayette County's sale of prepaid tax receipts for the week, ending Mar. 26, were substantially more than for the same week a year ago.

For the week the total was $8,769.78 and a year ago the amount was $7,670.70.

Greene and Highland counties showed decreases in this area, while in the state generally receipts were $821,000 ahead of those for the same period in 1954.

Officers of VFW Here Are Formally Installed

Don Fowler is now at the head of the O. E. Harway post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here.

With past Commander Walter Whaley administering the oath of office, he was installed as the new commander. Homer Miller, a past quartermaster, was installed as the vice commander and then was appointed as the post adjutant. Ted Wilburn is the new quartermaster.

Refreshments were served following the installation in the post club room.

Experts estimate that about a fifth of all food planted by man is destroyed by diseases and insect pests before it reaches the table.

Achievements Are Acclaimed

More Than 150 Hold Ninth Annual Event

One hundred fifty women assembled Wednesday in the Dayton Power and Light Co. auditorium for the ninth annual Achievement Day. These women represented 22 organized home demonstration clubs and ten organized Garden Clubs with a membership of nearly 500 women.

Mrs. Maryon Mark, president of the Fayette County Home Demonstration Council, presided.

The exhibits for the projects taught for 1954-1955 were on display. One on "Nutrition and Family Circle" was prepared by Jasper Township Club. Other responsibilities for the days were Washington Township and Sunny East, programs: Progressive, name tags, Chat and Stitch, offering: A. R. T. Club, and Bellarie, chairs; Bloomington, devotions; Concord Township, cookies; Dogwood Club, registration; Fayette, Know your Neighbor, Marion and Jasper Townships, exhibits; Greene Township, drinks; Perry townships, titles for exhibits; Wayne Township, tea table; Sugar Grove, tea table center piece; Modern Homemakers, DAYP, Union and Yatesville, restoration.

The program was one of the most interesting ever presented to the Home Demonstration Clubs. J. P. Schmidt, professor in Rural Sociology Extension, moderated a panel made up of Nagib Ibrahim from Egypt, Abbar Ghezibash from Iran, Kern Oh from Korea and Charles Grimes from Brown county, who was an IFYE student to Denmark in 1954.

This panel pointed out how the present economic conditions of their countries helped to influence steps toward developing these countries and the dangers that they might encounter.

Installed as the officers for the Council for 1955-56 were: Mrs. Herschel Hulett, Progressive Club, president; Mrs. T. N. Willis, Washington Township Club, vice president; Mrs. Laverne Morgan, DAYP Club, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Gene Carman, Union township club, publicity; Mrs. Worley Melvin, Sugar Grove Club, radio and Louise Ritter, Perry township club, Alumna chairman.

'Open House' Set By Auto Dealers

Event of Next Week Arranged For Public

Eight of Washington C. H.'s new car and new truck dealers will hold public Open "Houses" during National "Spotlight on Automobiles" week beginning Monday, April 11, Ray Brandenburg, event chairman, announced today.

The dealerships will be open to visitors daily and trained employees will be on hand to explain each phase of the complex operation of a modern auto sales and service plant.

Tours for special groups may be arranged by appointment with each dealer, Brandenburg said, adding that group inspections might be of special interest to students contemplating a career in the automobile business. Women's groups, too, he pointed out, might find such tours answer many of their questions about the care and maintenance of their cars.

"Both as employers and as servants of the motoring public, automobile dealers are an important part of the economic and civic life of Washington C. H.," Brandenburg pointed out. "We think it's a good idea to get to know our friends and neighbors better."

Angered Mother Marches Escapee Son Back To Jail

DYERSBURG, Tenn. (P)—Jailer Frank Gregory sleepily answered the door early yesterday and was surprised to see young James Beard, firm in the grip of his mother.

He investigated and found that five of his Negro prisoners had battered through the jail wall under cover of a thunderstorm. Beard was one of them.

The escapees separated after sliding down a blanket rope from the second floor. Beard, 19, went home. His mother marched him right back to jail.

Another of the escapees was caught later but three are still at large.

Gregory said the men used a window weight, a teaspoon and a hinge from a folding bunk to break off a rusty steel plate used to patch a hole cut through the wall in another breakout years ago.

Lawyer, 93, Dies

CLEVELAND (P)—Harry Marshall Farnsworth, who probably practiced law here longer than any other Cleveland barrister, died yesterday at 93. He was admitted to the bar in 1882 and retired from practice in 1950.

Easter and Its Meaning For All of Us

Again we are in the Easter season. How much does the average man and woman in this and other communities, give serious thought to what this means other than nicer weather as a rule, or a chance to take the family out in the car?

Each year the story of Easter is told and retold. Many fine sermons are heard pointing to the lessons of this event. But just as most people pay little or no attention to the trends of their government until some crisis arises, so do only a limited number of people think of Easter as anything more than the brightening of weather prospects and resulting changes in their own living habits.

It was once upon a time, close to a million days ago, as spring drifted over the barren hills and sandy wastes along the eastern Mediterranean, the most astonishing of a series of momentous and extraordinary events occurred at Jerusalem of the Roman province of Judea.

For some three years a carpenter known as Jesus of Nazareth, proclaiming himself to be the promised Messiah sent to save mankind, had been gaining converts to his cause, having displayed some unusual powers, such as the ability to walk on the waves, turn water to wine, heal the sick and raise the dead. Despite his claims and his powers, he was not ostentatious, but humble, kindly and understanding.

The Nazarene came out of the hills into Jerusalem that fateful springtime some 20 centuries ago.

Church authorities, long prepared for the appearance of such a being, did not choose to recognize the carpenter as such. This needn't be surprising. Such a one appearing in our midst today might well be held suspect and wind up in jail.

Jesus received such treatment, only more so. The church men decided that he must go. They fabricated charges of blasphemy and usurpation of civil authority. They demanded his death on the cross. Reluctantly the Roman governor yielded to pressure and let them have their way.

The crucifixion was carried out on a Friday on heights along the Damascus road outside the northern gate of the city. On Sunday Jesus' tomb was found to be empty. He subsequently appeared among his followers to urge that his work be carried on. And then, as those who chronicled the events put it, he "ascended into heaven."

The Nazarene had taught that belief in him as the son of God and kindness, humility and tolerance could spell life after death.

The doctrine combined the easiness of an old shoe with the eternal riddle of whence we come and whither we go. It was what man was looking for, and it fired his mind and emotions from that day forward.

It is still working for good against the tremendous forces of bigotry and evil as Eastertide comes round again.

Arctic Ready For Easter

OTTAWA (P) — Canada's 9,000 Eskimos, too, are getting their best furs and gayest colored clothing in order for another Easter far above the Arctic Circle—in Aklavik, Paulatuk, Arctic Bay, Pond Inlet, and a score of stations strung across the flowering wastes farther south. Missionaries are thinking about their brief sermons, rehearsing their tiny choirs and arranging for the cookies and candy that are part of every major religious festival in the northern territories.

The old hymns are always a big part of the celebration. The tribespeople sing in their tribal dialect, but the tunes are the familiar standbys.

Both hymns and prayers are written out in a sort of shorthand representing language sounds. It's the Eskimo's only common written language.

And for the little groups of English and French speaking people—doctors, nurses, traders, mounties, weather observers, prospectors—the holiday will renew a sense of community.

Even out in the trapping camps of three or four families,

the Eskimos have seen the Roman Catholic priest of the Oblate Fathers or the padres of the Anglican Church riding circuit by dog team, bringing a spiritual message and checking to see whether anyone is sick or injured.

"It is an inspiring sight to see them come into such an ice camp," says Alec Stevenson, a veteran of the north now working in Ottawa.

"They mush in on the sled. The families gather around for a chat. Then, with the barest of ritual and adornment, his parka pushed back from his head, his breath frosts on the air, the padre reads a short familiar prayer. He says a few words that might be a sermon. A hymn or two is sung. Then he's off to another camp."

More than 7,000 of the Eskimos are concentrated in the eastern sectors of the north, around Hudson Bay. Fairly large centers, with schools, medical services and nursing care, are growing up.

In Aklavik, considered a big community, there is a unique painting of the Virgin Mary surrounded by people and animals. The faces are Eskimo and the animals are those the Eskimos know, not the traditional ones. Art translates religion into terms they understand.

Easter has a special renewal theme for the Eskimos. Shortly after, following the long winter, comes the brief, sunny season in which vegetables and fruits grow quickly.

Stevenson, who often gets away from his desk for a trip back, said "nobody is really isolated in the North now." He said:

"Used to be you'd have to wait for the ice to go out enough to allow one boat to make one trip a year to bring in mail, fruit, the extras that count so much."

"Now up there they can expect four or five trips by planes which fly over the bay ice. If the planes don't come in to land, they at least will make frequent mail and package drops. And folks can get out, too, hitching rides in company or private planes."

Diet and Health Disorder of Eyelids May Be Hard to Cure

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Blepharitis marginalis is one of many minor disorders which may affect your eyelids. While it isn't a serious disorder, it is uncomfortable, often resistant to treatment and difficult to clear up.

Symptoms of Disorder
Symptoms to watch for are itching, burning and redness around the margins of your eyelids. The lids may also swell, and you may lose your eyelashes.

The lining membrane known as the conjunctiva may be irritated, and your eyes may water a good deal and be irritated by light. In some cases, ulcers may form and you may have scales or crusts.

Allergy May Be Cause
This disorder sometimes is due to some form of allergy. Frequently, it occurs in persons suffering from seborrhea dermatitis, an inflammatory skin disease.

You are more likely to be bothered with blepharitis marginalis if your resistance is low. Systemic infection, poor hygiene and an improper diet may cut your resistance and make you easier prey for this disorder.

While this is a mild disorder, it's important that you consult your doctor. If it is caused by an allergy, he can help you determine its source.

He may also advise penicillin ointment or some sulfa drugs. Large doses of vitamin A might be helpful, particularly if there is evidence that you are deficient in this vitamin.

Massaging the margins of the lid with salicylic acid and sulfur ointments usually helps to get rid of the crusts. Daily application of such preparations as silver nitrate might help, too.

Nightly Treatment
Application of petroleum before you go to bed at night, will help prevent the lids from sticking together when you awake.

Cold compresses several times each day may be of some help. Place an ice bag or cloth soaked in cold water on your affected eye for from 10 to 15 minutes several times daily.

Sometimes a physician might advise vaccines made from staphylococci, a bacteria.

As I said, this disorder doesn't respond quickly to treatment. So don't get discouraged if you don't get immediate results.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

G. P.: Will the giving of penicillin prevent a measles rash from erupting?

Answer: There is no evidence that penicillin will affect measles in any way except to help certain complications, such as pneumonia, from developing.

Cambridge Phone Dispute Settled

CAMBRIDGE (P)—Striking employees of the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. returned to work today after a one-day walkout.

John Sidlo, division manager, said an agreement was reached after all-day negotiations yesterday, but did not disclose details. Carl Mitchell, president of Local 4375, Communications Workers of America, said the walkout stemmed from working conditions, including union request for an extra night operator and posting of a seniority list.

New River Lock System Hinted

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (P)—The Huntington Advertiser says it has learned the initial contract for building a $20 million lock system on the Ohio River at Greenup, Ky., will be awarded next August or September.

The lock and a proposed high-level dam, designed to replace four dams between Greenup and Gallipolis will cost an estimated $65 million. A U. S. District Engineers spokesman said Congress has yet to provide funds for the lock.

Labor Demands Under Study

Ray Tucker

WASHINGTON — The most dangerous threat to continued economic stability is Labor's demands for huge wage raises in several key industries. Although government officials have in mind Walter P. Reuther's insistence on a guaranteed annual income, they point out that the same trend exists in other fields.

Those government executives are not anti-Labor, believing that the workers are worthy of their hire. As Henry Ford taught years ago, they know that the foundation of America's envied economic supremacy consists of consumers of vast purchasing power, which they derive mainly from fat factory pay envelopes. In private industry, these former heads of great corporations enjoyed excellent relations with union employees and organizations.

LABOR OUT — But Reuther and like-minded union leaders, in their opinion, may yet price Labor out of markets and jobs. By making production costs so heavy, they will reduce the popular demand for the things they turn out on the assembly line. The inevitable result will be chronic unemployment and a falling wage scale.

According to this belief, Reuther errs when he says that higher wages will maintain a mass buying power in the same proportion as today. For some reason, right or wrong—indeed, Reuther voices this same complaint—prices resulting from increased manufacturing costs tend to rise faster than wages.

This vicious circle, it is forecast, will be aggravated by smaller profits, decreased tax revenue to federal, state and local governments, and a compensating increase in taxes at all levels.

Even now, it is estimated that taxes on a $2,000 automobile amount to 28 per cent, or $560. And there are only a few makes selling as low as $2,000. Erstwhile low-priced cars are becoming semi-luxury products today. Herbert Hoover can blame the lack of "two cars in every garage" on union, not Republican, politicians.

THEN, NOW—John L. Lewis' experience should be a lesson to Reuther, in Washington's opinion. With the blessing of F.D.R. and Harry S. Truman, the president of the United Mine Workers demanded and obtained wages of $18 to $20 a day, with overtime, in the war years. He had industrialists and politicians under his big thumb then. He was eulogized as the outstanding "genius" of all Labor history.

Today, more than 200,000 of his miners in a score of states are jobless, or working only parttime. They have exhausted their federal and state relief funds. He has had to cut month-pension payments—financed out of royalties on each ton of coal—from $100 to $50. The shorter hours, vacations with pay and other "fringe" benefits he gained are only a mockery in the ghost towns he has created.

Princess-Townsend 'Romance' Denied

CAPETOWN, South Africa (P)—Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, the archbishop of Canterbury, said today there is "no truth whatsoever" in reports that Princess Margaret is to marry Capt. Peter Townsend.

The archbishop, who arrived in Capetown today, said the rumor of a romance "was purely a stunt, and a most offensive one at that, by a few English newspapers. Most of the London newspapers had nothing to do with it."

Professor Dies

COLUMBUS (P)—A heart attack at his home yesterday killed Dr. Marion Hollingsworth, 77, professor emeritus of chemistry at Ohio State University. He also taught at Wilmington College and St. Mary of the Spring.

Gas and oil now heat and light and operate more homes and factories than coal does. Railroads have substituted diesels for coal-burning locomotives. The competing fuels have become cheaper because John L. has priced his product out of the market and his men out of jobs.

Today, the coal industry is deathly "sick." John L. did not dare ask for an increase when his old contract terminated several months ago.

WARNING—The textile workers of New England and rug makers of New York constitute another warning to the Reutherites. Union demands have forced these mills to move South, where the wage scale and taxes and power—hydro, not steam—are far lower, and where employees are willing to work longer hours.

Migrating manufacturers admit that excessive labor costs were the principal reason for the southward shift. As John L. has had to do, some textile and rug unions have torn up existing contracts and agreed to accept wage reductions rather than go unemployed. Other AFL locals have had to finance a plant with their own funds to keep them from moving or closing down.

In Washington's opinion and dread, Reuther may find with John L. that the wages of excessive demands are unemployment!

THE GOLDEN DAY

The bell rings, and its message is a clarion call across the countryside. Beneath it, white lilies touched by the sunlight look upward toward a cloudless sky.

This is Easter... the golden day... the day of promise and joy. This is the time when God proffers the great gift of eternal life... when he shows, in the lesson of the Tomb... that there is no death.

There is no more joyous occasion in the Church than Easter. Against the setting of Spring, it touches the land with beauty, bringing a new upsurge of hope, thrilling the young, comforting the old. Easter is the time to rededicate your faith... to listen again to a wonderful promise... to receive again a glorious gift. Start attending Church regularly by beginning at Easter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It was voted to give an additional $50 to each of the Mission Boards and also to encourage the young people of the church who are either studying at present or who are actively engaged in the work of the church, by sending them a cash remembrance and they are Miss Hazel Engle, student at Marysville College, Marysville, Tenn., Miss Ann Hite, student at Wooster College, Mr. John Parrett, Theological student at Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. James Gardner, Fraternal Worker of the Presbyterian Mission Board who is now working in Switzerland.

Dr. Dorothy Ferris of the Frances Newton Hospital, Ferozepur,

Punjab, India is also being remembered.

Mrs. Paul announced the Spring Presbyterian which will be held in Columbus April 18th at the Overbrook Presbyterian Church and Miss Florence Ludy of Kansas City, Missouri, Area Secretary for Women's work in the West Central Area will be the speaker.

At this meeting Mrs. Ormond Dewey will be installed as President of the Columbus Presbyterian and Mrs. McCoy Gardner will have the office of Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Don Wood led in impressive devotions using as her theme "He Is Hope" and referring us to Christ's Sermon on the Mount as the answer to Job's question "If a man die will he live again?" and closed with prayer.

Mrs. Dwight Roads, Jr. Second Vice President in charge of Foreign Missions introduced the speaker for the evening, Mrs. Maxwell Becker, who has just returned from Pakistan where her husband was in the Forestry Service of the U. S. Government under the Point Four Program.

Mrs. Becker a charming person, dressed in an official Pakistan costume of beautiful blue figured silk brought to her audience a most realistic picture of the life of the underprivileged people of both East and West Pakistan and also India where her two children were in school. She was living in East Pakistan when the natives celebrated their seventh anniversary of Independence August 14, 1954.

In her talk she brought out the fact that there is no easy solution to the problems of a new nation, especially when it is divided geographically and the two sections have practically nothing in common except their religion, and between the two lies India, their enemy. It will take understanding, help, and patience along with education before Pakistan can become a united, peaceful and prosperous country.

Mrs. Becker was accompanied from Columbus by Miss Rachel Dennison.

Special Services for Easter Planned for All Churches Here

Practically every church in the city and county is giving particular attention to the celebration of Easter and its great significance in the Christian world.

Special sunrise services, cantatas, sermons, special music and the usual Easter decorations are being combined in celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

One of the largest church attendances on record is anticipated for Sunday, Easter Day, and some of the larger churches are giving much attention to elaborate decorations with Easter bloom, after which many of the flowers will be given to those who are unable to attend the services.

Special services in addition to regular services, have been announced by the following churches.

AT GRACE CHURCH
The observance of Easter at Grace Methodist Church started Thursday night, with a largely attended communion service.

At 6 A. M. Sunday the sunrise service, always a popular service and well attended, will be held, with Don Clay the speaker, and with special music.

The next service at the church will be at 8:00 A. M., which will be a duplicate service of 10:30 A. M., the regular hour for worship services. The same music will be given by the choir and same sermon delivered by the pastor.

The church will be elaborately decorated with Easter lilies, and Mrs. Arch Ribber is chairman of the committee supervising the lilies. A large number of families and church organizations contribute lilies to bank the altars.

The choir under direction of William Cliff, has prepared special music for the various services, and the pastor's sermon will be on "Easter is the Way of Life". Children's baptismal service will be held at 4 P. M.

SPECIAL SERVICE
The senior Baptist youths of the First Baptist Church are giving a play for the Sunrise Service Easter morning at 7:00 P. M. It is "Out of the Darkness," by John McGreevy, and is a story about Cornelius, who was one of the Roman soldiers ordered by Pilate to guard the tomb of Christ.

For money he and his fellow guards lied, defying the truth of the Resurrection. It reaches a wonderful climax as his blind son is visited by the Prophet, Silas.

The youths taking part in the play are: "Cornelius" played by John Sommers; "Bernice," his aunt, Nancy Hurt; Urias a high priest, John Knedler, Drusella, his wife, Nancy Reno, Ruth, a charming girl, Nancy Merritt; Titus the blind son of Cornelius and Drusella, Norman Chaney, and Silas a deacon, Larry Hurt.

Mrs. Charles Hurt is director of the play. The members of the church and the public are cordially invited.

CANTATA SUNDAY
Cantata will be presented by the choir of the First Christian Church, Sunday at 7:30 P. M., and will require one hour.

The choir directed by Mrs. Coyt Stookey — Accompanied by Miss Margaret Gibson, will present the Cantata, "The Triumphant Hour", by Ellen Jane Lorenz.

The soloists will sing the words of characters in the Resurrection story. They are:

The High Priest — Charles Pensyl; Jesus — William Brown; Peter — Donald Belles; First Maid — Miss Shirley Brown; Second Maid — Mrs. William Brown; Third Maid — Miss Christine Switzer; Pilate — William Whiting; Simon the Cyrenian — Coyt Stookey; The Centurian — Glen Jette; Mary Magdalene — Mrs. Paul Maughmer; John — Richard Stoops; Mary, the Mother — Mrs. Lavern Morgan; Joseph of Arimathea — Paul Maughmer; Two Angels — Miss Rosemary Swartz and Mrs. Donald Belles; Cleopas, Companion — Mrs. Donald Belles; Cleopas — Coyt Stookey.

choir and the church will be decorated with Easter Lilies. Colored film strip will be shown as the Cantata is sung. (Pictures will be life-size). This is an entirely new type of musical program. The music is dramatic and vivid. The contents of the Cantata are:

Prologue — "Remember Jesus Christ"; "The Crucifixion"; "In Joseph's Garden"; "At the Tomb"; "Behold Him!"; "The Madalene"; "The Upper Room"; "The Road to Emmaus"; "Alleluia"; "On the Shore of Galilee";

Experts Study Way To Crack Traffic Snarl

COLUMBUS (AP)—Delegates to a highway conference here yesterday heard four traffic experts suggest as many aids to easing urban traffic problems.

The panel discussed smarted city parking in the second day of the ninth annual Ohio Highway Engineering Conference.

Suggestions included: James V. Musick, Columbus traffic engineer: Combine use of public transportation and suburban terminal parking lots.

Dr. Robert Howe, University of Cincinnati: The best way to cope with the problem is to adhere to parking regulations.

G. A. Berry, Ohio State Automobile Assn.: Finance off - street parking facilities.

D. K. Finley, Columbus Chamber of Commerce: "The only answer to the problem may ultimately be to eliminate curb parking in congested areas completely."

Berry said he believed parking meters are the best method to increase turnover of cars for much-desired curb space.

The conference, sponsored jointly by the Department of Civil Engineering at Ohio State University and the Ohio Department of Highways, ends today with a morning general session devoted to addresses on highway building.

Florists Set For Biggest Spurt Of Year

Easter Season Opens Huge Turnover For Greenhouse Industry

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Good Friday finds the canyons of finance empty and silent. The bulls and bears have departed today from Wall Street.

And overnight, while the stock tickers go silent for the long weekend of religious observation, the Easter lilies spring up from the pavements in the midst of Rockefeller Center here. Flowers burst forth along the sidewalks in front of florist shops around the world.

Easter is the season of flowers. Millions of blooms crisscross the nation and span the seas. They pour into the cities by train, truck, ship and plane. This is the flower growers' top season, followed by sales for Mother's Day and Christmas.

This year, the florists predict, will see the greatest number of blossoms ever to deck the churches and homes of people of many lands. For weeks, growers have been forcing or pinching back the plants so blooms will spring forth like a miracle for this weekend.

Cut flowers and potted plants are shipped in from distant fields.

Bermuda and Hawaii send their offerings, along with those of California and parts of the South where flower growing for the various holidays is a major industry.

The practice of telegraphing flower orders has spread around the world, with some 18,000 florists in more than 100 countries linked through a clearing house device known as Interflora, of which the American affiliate is the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Assn. The clearing houses where the florists settle their accounts are in Detroit, London, and Zurich, Switzerland.

Ed Ludwig, president of the

The Record-Herald Fri., April 8, 1955 7

American group, says telegraphed orders for Easter flowers are running seven per cent ahead of a year ago.

Total flower sales this Easter are expected to set a record at around 100 million dollars. This would be five per cent above a year ago.

The airplane has brought a big boost to the floral business. This year it is booming. Pan American World Airways says the volume of Easter flowers flown from Bermuda, Puerto Rico and Honolulu has increased 20 per cent this year. Eastern Airlines reports air shipments of flowers from the South into the New York area is up 15 per cent.

American, TWA, and United fly tons of blossoms out of California for eastern points during Holy Week.

Recent cold waves hit North

Carolina's iris, and some outdoor roses were nipped in the South. But most Easter flowers come from greenhouses and the supply this year is said to be ample.

You can find anything you're looking for, from a spray for the lapel to some real fanciful creations.

One florist on New York's Park Avenue is offering an all-flower Easter rabbit. The bunny is concocted from white carnations with ears of green leaves, a rosebud for a mouth and blue cornflowers for eyes.

In the same neighborhood you can get a large jeweled Easter egg filled with pink orchids. It costs $150.

In Latin the "calends" was the first day of the month—hence the English word "calendar."

Spring Sport Championships Due Last 2 May Weekends

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's four-play high school spring sports program will be split over two weekends this year for the first time.

With the Western Conference track-field championships scheduled May 27-28 at Ohio Stadium, the high school cinder events have been moved up to May 20-21. Originally they were set for May 27-28.

The baseball, golf and tennis championships will not be molested by the conflict in dates and will remain on the May 27-28 program. High School Commissioner H. W. Emswiler said today.

Prior to the state meets, district qualifiers will be held in all four sports on a far-flung front.

Sites of the May 14 district track meets are: Class A and B at Delaware, Uhrichsville, Bowling Green, Mansfield, Athens and Cincinnati Class A at Cleveland, Salem (May 13) and Dayton, and Class B at Hagrin Falls, Berea and Springfield.

Golf tests are booked May 20-21 at Columbus St. Clairsville, Cleveland (two tournaments), Ravenna, Toledo, Lima, Dayton and Cincinnati. Tennis qualifiers the same dates are at Columbus, Martins Ferry, Cleveland, Akron, Bowling Green, Dayton and Cincinnati. There are no class distinctions in golf and tennis.

District Class A baseball tournaments are scheduled for the May 13-14 weekend in Columbus, Bridgeport, Akron, Athens, Dayton, Cincinnati and at northwestern site still to be selected. The Class B district events are at Columbus, Bridgeport, Kent, Coldwater,

Use Of Fire On Fencerows, Fields Rapped By Experts

COLUMBUS—About this time each year Ohio wildlife officials grow concerned because "too many people get the urge to start a fire" and such places as fencerows, stubble fields, roadsides, grassy fields and railroad margins feel the brunt of this burning. Some people think burning off controls serious insects and weeds.

Actually authorities of the U. S. Department of Agriculture make no mention of the use of fire in controlling harmful insects; good farming practices, however, are stressed. The use of insect and weed killing sprays, proper harvesting methods and crop rotations are used effectively in modern agriculture.

Long Term Bean Storage Decried

COLUMBUS (AP)—Lowell Folsom grain marketing specialist at Ohio State University, says futures quotations do not favor long term storage of soybeans.

He said futures prices are progressively lower for summer and fall contracts, and reflect a relatively calm international situation, lower price support and increased soybean acreage this year. He explained that futures prices are what present conditions indicate the cash price for a crop probably will be in coming months.

11 Die In Crash

TAIPEI (AP)—A Chinese Nationalist PBV amphibious plane crashed and burned trying to land in misty weather today, killing all 11 Chinese aboard.

Scientists believe that the first villages were set up in what is now Iraq about 7,000 years ago.

Lion Track Team Gets Second Place In 3-Way Meet

The Washington C. H. Lions gained second place in a triangular track meet Thursday afternoon at Wilmington.

The host Wilmington tracksters won the meet with 53 points and Circleville High School was third with 27. The WCH crew piled up 44.

Coach Ed Dean's boys were paced by Bob Hunter who won the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes to garner 10 points for the Lions. Bad weather probably had a lot to do with some of the slow running times, Coach Dean said today. Summary of events:

Little Lady Tutor Saves Hulk of Man

DETROIT (AP)—John Church, 6-foot-4, match teacher, was fished from the bottom of the Duffee Intermediate swimming pool yesterday by 5-foot-2 Ann Braverman, a fellow teacher.

Church blacked out and sank while taking a dip with fellow teachers. Miss Braverman, a gym teacher, spotted him, hauled him to the surface and lifted him over the pool edge, where he was revived by artificial respiration.

Ailing Wynn Set Back To Cleveland

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Cleveland's Indians sent ailing pitcher Early Wynn to Cleveland before flying here today for their last two exhibition games.

Wynn first came down with influenza two weeks ago, but then recovered enough to pitch twice. After that he suffered a relapse and left the team.

Manager Al Lopez noted "this will probably set him back, but he can start working out Monday and he may be ready to pitch five or six days later."

The Tribe, idle today, plays the Milwaukee Braves tomorrow and Sunday and then moves to Cleveland to start defense of American League pennant Tuesday against the Chicago White Sox.

Bob Lemon, who will start against the Sox, is slated to work four innings here tomorrow. Mike Garcia will work four on Sunday.

The Indians lost to the New York Giants yesterday at Knoxville, Tenn., closing out the spring tour between the clubs at nine victories each.

New York won the last game, 6-5, scoring the clinching run on a wild pitch, allowing Ronnie Samford to make it home from third.

Samford had singled and advanced on a hit by Don Mueller.

The Giants rallied for four runs and tied the game in the eighth on a walk to Mueller, an error by Al Rosen, a fly by Monte Irvin, a single by Hank Thompson and a homer by Bobby Hofman.

He was appointed yesterday by House Speaker Roger Cloud to look into the matter, along with Reps. Don Campbell (R-Athens), Loretta Woods (R -Scioto) and Paul Siple (D-Laurence).

Only 3 Starting Pitchers Able To Go Nine Innings

The Associated Press
Only three of the 16 pitchers who probably will be on the mound in next week's major league openers have gone a full nine innings in this spring's exhibition games—and only one of the three came off with a victory.

Brooklyn's Carl Erskine and Philadelphia's Robin Roberts are the only National League openers to go all the way. In the American League, Cleveland's Bob Lemon is all by himself, although New York's Whitey Ford entered the ninth but left with nobody out in a losing decision.

Erskine alone won, shutting out Washington 6-0 with difficulty Wednesday.

Roberts went nine Sunday, but lost to Boston 4-2. Lemon missed against the New York Giants 5-1 Tuesday.

Here's what the probable opening day pitchers who saw action yesterday did:

Boston — Frank Sullivan went eight innings, allowing one hit in the first four frames, but missed the decision as Philadelphia won in the 10th 4-3.

Chicago — Virgil Trucks (19-12) went seven innings against St. Louis, left with a 6-5 lead after a four-run fourth in which the Cardinals' Bill Virdon hit a three-run homer. Sox won in ninth 7-6.

Kansas City—Alex Kellner (6-17) went seven innings, gave up nine

Solons Bushed After 5 Innings

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Congressional baseball teams wound up "spring training" last night by battling to an 8-8 tie. The game was called after five innings "because of fatigue."

Rep. Glenn Davis of Wisconsin pitched the route for the Republicans and contributed a double to his own cause.

Rep. Torbert MacDonald of Massachusetts held the Democratic mound for four innings, was bounced for Lud Ashley of Ohio, then was rushed back in by Manager Syd Herlong of Florida when Ashley filled the bases on walks.

Each team used just about all of its 18 players. Substitutions were fast and furious; at times it was anybody's guess who was hitting.

hits in 5-2 defeat by Norfolk of Class B Piedmont League.
NATIONAL LEAGUE
Cincinnati — Art Fowler (12-10) worked last five innings but missed decision in 9-1 victory over Lynchburg, Class B Piedmont League.

Philadelphia — Robin Roberts (23-15) pitched seven innings, gave up six hits and left trailing 2-1 on Norm Zauchin's two-run homer as Phils beat Boston in 10th 4-3.

St. Louis — Brooks Lawrence gave up three runs in fifth before leaving with 4-3 lead over White Sox in game won by Chicago 7-6.

In other games yesterday, Baltimore beat Pittsburgh 2-1 and the Giants beat Cleveland 6-5 to end their exhibition series with nine victories apiece.

Man Rearrested In Wife's Death

WARREN (AP)—Sheriff T. Herbert Thomas last night re-arrested Ernest Wall, 48, in connection with the slaying of Wall's wife at their home in Masury.

The sheriff ordered Wall jailed again after a lie detector test at the prison farm in London, Ohio.

The sheriff said he would present the evidence today to Prosecutor Charles Anderson.

Mrs. Mary Wall, 38, was found shot and beaten to death in the basement of her home March 2

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

Where to Plant Ferns

By DEAN HALLIDAY

Distributed by Central Press Association

MANY gardeners hesitate to plant ferns, fearing they are hard to grow. This actually is not the case although it is a rather common belief.

It is important, however, to use the right type of fern in the place selected for planting. Ferns such as the Common Polypody, Maidenhair, Splenwort and the Common Woodsia are ideal for the shaded rock garden. Rusty Woodsia and Purple Cliffbrake will thrive in the sunny rock garden. The Royal fern will grow in wet spots, providing it has sufficient sunlight.

Against a fence or wall, use Pellaea atropurpurea, or the climbing fern, Lygodium palmatum, but be sure to give the latter an acid soil.

The accompanying Garden-

Graph shows how to plant ferns having slender branching rootstocks or rhizomes just below the soil surface. Ferns of this type, such as the Common Polypody and the New York fern, should be covered very lightly with soil.

Ferns which have a short, thick rootstock should be transplanted with at least two inches of the straggling rootstock left attached to the crown part. This should be done, as illustrated in the Garden-Graph, so the plant is not starved for lack of rootlets.

Ferns can be used even in the small garden along the north side of the garage or house, or under trees and shrubs. In fact, ferns can be planted in any heavily shaded spot in your garden where you think they will make themselves at home.

Hop-Scotching Cop Plays Good Hunch

KENT (A)—Because Police Sgt. Roy D. Thompson got a hunch while playing hop-scotch, a young man is in jail today charged with seven burglaries here.

Thompson was playing hop-scotch with his two young daughters on his day off when he saw a car pass his home. Something made him suspicious of the driver. He wrote the license number on the sidewalk with hop-scotch chalk.

A check showed the license number was registered to Jesse Guldge Jr., 211 of Akron, Guldge was out of jail on $5,000 bond on seven indictments of house burglary in adjacent Summit County. Questioned by Kent police, he admitted seven burglaries in Kent.

People Asked To Report at Once Any Dog Bites

Dr. N. A. Dyer, County Health Commissioner Points Out Danger

With an increase in the number of dog bites reported to the Fayette County Health Department in the past few weeks, Dr. N. A. Dyer, county health commissioner, pointed out to the public today that all dog bites should be reported promptly to the health department.

This is necessary, he said, in order that the health department can investigate the case and have the animal confined for an observation period of ten (10) days. If during this period the dog becomes sick or acts suspicious, a veterinarian, or the health department, should be called immediately.

Through this period of observation it is possible to determine whether or not the dog will develop rabies. A dog that has bitten someone should never be killed, except on the advice of the health department or a veterinarian. Dr. Dyer stated.

Dr. Dyer also pointed out that all dog bites, or scratches, should be considered as potentially dangerous. The person bitten should consult his family physician as soon as possible for treatment.

Chance Seen

word about the Ferguson bill. This has irritated at least one member of the highway committee, Sen. William Tyrrell (R-Preble), who says the commission's silence is one of his reasons for supporting the bill.

OPPONENTS of the measure contend it will mean the end of future turnpikes in Ohio, including the proposed southwest-northeast turnpike from Cincinnati to Cincinnati with a spur to Toledo. An engineering survey on that project now is underway. Opponents of the bill contend future turnpike proposals would bog down in a legislative route-and-bonds committee to the end that no agreements could be reached.

Under present law, turnpike routes are selected by the director of highways with final approval by the governor—after a hearing.

The Ferguson bill would place the route decision in the hands of a committee made up of three senators, three representatives and one member appointed by the governor.

Under present law, the issuance of bonds to finance turnpike construction is the responsibility of the turnpike commission.

The Ferguson bill would hand the bond-issuing purse-strings to the same committee which would make the final decision on routes.

Under present law, according to an Ohio Supreme Court decision, the turnpike commission has the right to determine the type of construction it will use. For turnpike No. 1 across northern Ohio, it chose cement concrete. Under the revised Ferguson bill, the commission would be required to open bidding to other types of construction. To all practical purposes, that means asphalt.

National Guard Unit Inspected At Armory

A nine-hour inspection of Company M of the National Guard was held Thursday afternoon and evening at the Armory here.

Lt. Col. Daniel J. Smart of Ft. Mead, Md., conducted inspection of the 72-man unit. He first checked all administrative and supply records and maintenance of equipment. Then formal inspection of the ranks was followed by drill tests, a question and answer session and observation of training.

Warrant Officer Robert Goodson, the unit administrator, said he hoped Company M would come up with a "superior" rating. Company M has been given an "excellent" rating for the past two years.

Results of the test will not be known for several weeks.

Rubber Workers Ending Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—A tentative agreement has been reached between CIO workers and the U. S. Rubber Co. to end a weeklong nationwide strike affecting 19 plants and some 33,000 employees.

A company spokesman said the pact probably would be signed today with the CIO United Rubber Workers and a back-to-work movement would start soon.

The workers walked out last Thursday, when their old contract expired, in a dispute over working conditions, vacations and holidays. Wages were not an issue.

Police And City Manager Confer

Plans Discussed For Improved Service

City Manager James F. Parkinson and Chief Vaiden Long held a conference with the members of the police department Thursday afternoon, one of a series of such meetings held, for further improving the service.

A number of matters pertaining to top service were discussed.

One of the first things discussed was the use of courtesy in dealing with the public, which had been stressed before, and the instructions are for courtesy at all times.

Parkinson stressed that courtesy is one of the most important qualifications of good police officers.

The importance of being alert at all times also was taken up with the policemen. They were told that police are not looking for trouble but to prevent it.

Parkinson also complimented the police for the good manner in which the department had been operated the last 30 days.

It was decided to give more attention to the double parking problem in the city, particularly during rush hours, and double parkers are to be ticketed.

It was pointed out that double parking seriously impedes traffic, particularly on through routes.

It was also stated that too many people are taking advantage of alley parking and allow vehicles to remain in alleys too long. This is to receive attention.

Other matters pertaining to continued first class service were also taken up at the conference.

Wool Thief Given Term In Jail Here

Amos Duncan, 20, was arrested by Sheriff Orland Hays and two charges of stealing wool from Kenneth Walters, of near Jeffersonville, were filed against him by the sheriff.

Two thefts one on March 2 and the other on April 2, were charged, and the wool had been sold for $90.88.

In municipal court, Judge Max G. Dice Friday fined Duncan $25 and costs and gave him 30 days in jail on each charge, but suspended $25 and costs and the 30 days in one case, pending good behavior and that Duncan repay to Walters the $90.88 received for the stolen wool.

Duncan is now serving his 30 days in the county jail.

Chance Seen For Upsetting Turnpike Panel

Bill Bringing Change In Operations Rules Said Gaining Favor

COLUMBUS (AP) — Some observers are saying it looks like a legislative bid to capture authority over future Ohio turnpikes has more steam behind it than when it was introduced last Jan. 5.

This week, for the first time, some legislators were making guarded predictions the Republican-controlled General Assembly might approve the proposal to put route-fixing and bond-issuing authority in the hands of a committee dominated by legislators.

But the bill, if it ever reaches the governor's desk, is expected to run smack into a veto by Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Whether supporters of the proposal to trim the turnpike commission's wings could muster enough votes to override a Lausche veto is quite another matter. But the week's developments, which have made mince meat of party lines, appear to foreshadow the first old-fashioned donnybrook of the 101st General assembly.

The bill was introduced by Sen. David McK. Ferguson (R-Guernsey) on the first day of the session at which the Senate opened the door to proposed laws.

AT ITS FIRST few hearings, it appeared to have little support except for the author, Ferguson is chairman of the Senate Highways Committee which is handling this bill. The measure languished for weeks, then abruptly was assigned to a subcommittee. That group added several features, most of them proposed by Sen. J. E. Simpson (R-Hardin).

Both Ferguson and Simpson have been consistent critics of turnpike legislation and of the manner in which the turnpike commission conducts its business.

Senate Minority Leader Joseph W. Bartunek (D-Cuyahoga) swung his support behind the bill Monday night in a surprise move a few hours after he received a letter from Lausche opposing it.

The move was all the more surprising in view of Bartunek's one-time close personal friendship with the turnpike commission chairman, James W. Shocknessy.

Bartunek's stand could result in Democratic support for the measure on the Senate floor. It now appears the highways committee will recommend its passage although two members, Sen. Lowell Fess (R - Greene and Stephen Glenick (R-Mahoning), say flatly they will oppose it.

So far, no member of the turnpike commission or any of its representatives has said a public (Please Turn to Page Twelve)

Remember all those colored balloons the kids were holding on strings or that you watched rise and drift out of sight into the wild blue yonder last Friday?

I'll bet that you wondered: (How far will they drift?) (2) Will anyone ever find them? (3) Will anyone ever write back to say one was found?

The Murphy Store gave away 5,000 of them the day the remodeled and enlarged store was opened but word has come back from just one of the hundreds that must have floated out of sight.

A letter bearing a Parkersburg, W. Va., postmark came to the store saying:

"We caught a balloon yesterday (April 2) from Murphy's Store from Washington C. H., Ohio. We live 6 miles south of Parkersburg in what is known as Lost Pavement."

The letter was signed "Norman Badgley."

Russell Hinchey, the manager of the store here, said he was writing to Mr. Badgley to express his appreciation of the word from the balloon and that he had sent his letter on to the Murphy Store headquarters in McKeesport, Pa.

Inside the letter from Badgley was a piece of the yellow rubber balloon on which the Murphy Store name was printed. A fringe had been cut all around the edge of the little fragment of the balloon; it looked like a child had gone all around it with scissors making scores of cuts about a inch and a half long. It is possible that the fringe was caused when the balloon burst, but it did not have exactly that appearance.

Finding the balloon near Parkersburg, well over 100 miles southeast of here, gives rise to some interesting speculation about air currents far above the earth on that sunny Friday. Almost without exception the balloons lost here went high into the air and drifted out of sight to the northeast.

Nature Breaks Records For Breaking Records On Weather for Spring

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mother Nature may be breaking all records this spring for breaking all records.

Spring traditionally comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. So far this year, things have been in reverse order.

In the first weeks of March, most of the nation was lulled by a record warm sun. St. Louis baked at 86 degrees March 10; Dallas sweltered at 94 one day later; it was 61 as far north as Muskegon, Mich.

Heat records for the season were toppled again in many areas a few days later. Fruit trees blossomed and flowers burst into beauty for spring festivals.

But all this was cruel deceit. There followed probably the worst series of spring cold waves ever recorded. Blizzards paralyzed parts of the North, and continued even through this first week of April. Record-breaking freezes spread across the South, crippling crops, fruit trees and flowers.

There were also a rash of tornadoes, duststorms, gales, and some severe floods along the Ohio.

In the fourth week of March alone, the U. S. Weather Bureau here attributed 65 deaths and millions of dollars damage to the furies of the weather.

The unprecedented outbreaks piled 24 inches of snow on Sheridan, Wyo., in 24 hours this week, breaking all records. Southern New England in April is digging out of a 20-inch snow, heaviest of the year.

On March 27, one week after the formal beginning of spring, New Orleans at 30 degrees shivered under the coldest temperatures in four years. The same city broke a heat record for the season only 10 days earlier, with 87 degrees.

What sent Mother Nature on such a rampage?

Weather Bureau forecaster Jerome Namias today blamed those mysterious "jet streams" which circle the globe up to 40,000 feet high. This is his explanation:

A light change in the west-to-east pattern of the jet stream moved a huge, frigid air mass over Canada.

But instead of letting it break out in waves across this country, as it usually does, the jet streams changed their pattern. They kicked up tremendous speeds of over 200 m.p.h. Their north-south waves flattened out.

The jet streams, in effect, formed a barrier to further southward movement of this cold air.

Meanwhile, warm air from the Gulf spread farther north. An extreme contrast developed.

Then, like a delayed action bomb, the jet streams lost their fierce eastward momentum. The north-south waves developed into big peaks and troughs, which began moving eastward. The pent-up air in Canada, long held in a deep freeze, was loosed on the United States in a series of paralyzing blasts.

What will the jet streams do next?

Namias expects the waves to continue sliding eastward. That should bring more cool air to the extreme northeast and to the Southeast as far around as Texas. Warmer - than - usual air should settle over the Northern Plains.

This contrast (warmer air in most of the North and cooler air in the South) might continue to act as a storm-maker. But weather officials hardly expect an extended repeat performance.

UAW and GM Resume Talks On Wage Deal

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers today resumed its effort to write a guaranteed annual wage into its contracts with the nation's automakers.

The union is bargaining with General Motors on a new agreement to cover 325,000 hourly rated GM employees. The union's five-year pact with the corporation expires May 29.

The GM contract might set the pattern for the entire industry and have a far-reaching impact on the nation's economy.

Harry W. Anderson, GM vice president in charge of personnel, sounded a cautious note of optimism before yesterday's 4½-hour opening conference.

He said the company was "going into these negotiations with the idea of doing the best we can to get a satisfactory settlement."

"I'm sure," he added, "the union boys are doing the same thing."

John W. Livingston, UAW vice president and director of the union, said there was harmony at the session in which "we briefly reviewed orally a number of the issues." What the issues reviewed were, neither side would say.

Livingston said the "meeting marked the beginning of one of the most important negotiations these parties have ever participated in."

Beyond Panties Are 3-Cent Stamps

BALTIMORE (AP)—You can get a fashion show for the price of a 3-cent stamp at the branch post office of the Northwood shopping center here.

The post office was evicted from more conventional quarters in the shopping center and accepted an invitation to set up shop in a small room at the rear of a women's clothing store.

To get there, the customer must pass displays of "campus panties," silk stockings, perfumes, "shorty" nightgowns, girdles and bras "custom contoured for you alone."

It's something not every man can take, but the clerk on duty says she is keeping "very busy during the lunch-hour rush."

CHRISTENDOM OBSERVES CHRIST'S DEATH ON CROSS

Church Messages Starting Today In Record-Herald

The first of a series of weekly non-denominational inspirational messages appears in today's Record-Herald on page 5.

These messages, which will be different each week and with different attractive religious art, are endorsed by the Ministerial Association and individual members of the clergy everywhere. They are designed to encourage the people of this community to support and attend the church of their choice on Sunday.

In addition to the general religious message, there will be a weekly calendar of Bible reading suggestions.

They are to appear every Friday with the announcements of time of services of the different churches.

They are made possible by 32 business firms here.

Bloodmobile Coming Apr. 28

Donor Recruiting Up To Lionesses

While Red Cross fund-raisers plug along slowly toward a goal of $9,200, plans for recruiting donors for the regular call of the bloodmobile here April 28 today were taking form.

This time, the mobile unit is to be set up in the First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Market and Hinde Streets.

The Lioness Club, which in two previous occasions has recruited enough donors to go over the 150-pint quota, is behind the effort this time.

The Grady Sorority sponsored the bloodmobile's call last January when 163 pints were donated—13 more than the quota.

This will be the first time the mobile unit has been set up in the First Presbyterian Church and plans are being made for it to go there for the remaining five calls this year, Tom Mark, the chairman of the blood program, said.

Essentially the same staff of volunteer workers is to be at the church to lend a hand to the trained technicians that always accompany the bloodmobile.

The increased use being made of blood in hospitals makes the need for blood as urgent as ever before.

Records of Memorial Hospital here show that more blood from the Red Cross blood bank was used there last year than was given to the blood bank by Fayette Counties.

Residents of Fayette County got that blood, if they needed it, without cost, except for the fee for administering it.

Part of the money contributed during the annual fund raising campaigns (this year's is now in progress) goes to pay for the blood that Fayette Counties are entitled to use.

Mrs. Emma Griffiths, the president of the Lioness Club, said "all members of the club have a job to do in recruiting donors."

And, in view of past successes of the club, there was a note of optimism in her statement.

Ex-Ohio Patrolman Declared Guilty

IRONTON (AP)—A Lawrence county jury has found a former state highway patrolman guilty of second degree manslaughter in the hit-run traffic death of Coal Grove Policeman Carl Green, 30.

Judge Warren S. Earhart gave Robert Brinkles, 29, of Gallipolis three days in which to appeal.

Brinkles testified he was not driving when Green was struck and killed March 5, 1954. The policeman was standing beside a car he had stopped on U. S. 32, near Ironton.

Kids Have Fun at Cherry Hill

ON YOUR MARK! Cherry Hill Elementary School youngsters getting ready (top picture) for the Easter egg scramble Thursday afternoon on the hill outside the school. Each teacher threw colored candy eggs down the hill. Then she gave her class the signal for "operation scramble," (center picture) and they're off. Each child carried a paper bag for gathering the eggs (bottom picture) when it was everyone for himself. It's catch as catch can as the scramble continues. Soon after not an egg was to be found. Teachers later hid more eggs on the grounds and the kids had another frolic hunting them. It's an annual affair of Cherry Hill and both pupils and teachers love it. The eggs being candy made pretty good eating too. (Record-Herald photo)

Sparkman Urging Caution

Air Buildup by Reds Watched

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said today it would be "folly" to allow the Chinese Communists to continue building up air strength opposite Formosa.

"Once it becomes apparent their purpose is to launch an attack," he said, "it becomes our duty to take action."

But unless President Eisenhower decides "that the concentrations have developed to a point where the United States itself should act," Sparkman said, the Chinese Nationalists should not be allowed to bomb air bases and other installations reportedly under construction along the South China coast.

One Republican senator asking anonymity said the Eisenhower administration is scrutinizing information from Formosa that the reported buildup could give Red China's air force supremacy over the Formosa Strait.

Gen. Sun Li-Jen, Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek's personal chief of staff, said in Formosa yesterday that when the Communists have completed building new jet airfields they can challenge the combined air and navy superiority of the Nationalists and the U. S.

Administration officials, questioned on Gen. Sun's statement, said only that all questions involved in a buildup of Communist forces along the coast have been under study for many weeks. These officials reflected no special sense of alarm or urgency.

Nationalist China has agreed, in connection with its mutual defense treaty with the United States, not to launch any attacks against the mainland without U. S. agreement.

bombing forays over the mainland, Sparkman said, Red China certainly would retaliate. That would "almost insure war," Sparkman said, and he continued:

"It would be folly, however, to let a buildup continue beyond a stage where their purpose is apparent and the threat real. This will bear close watching and I am certain the administration is watching it."

"If the President comes to the conclusion that the Communist purpose is to invade Formosa and represents a real threat, then it would be up to us to act."

In Taipei, Formosa, the Nationalist Chinese Defense Ministry said today the Communists began using their big newly built air base at Luchiao, 200 miles north of the Matsu Islands, April 3.

The base is reported the largest and best in the whole of Red China and is usable by every type of plane from jets to heavy bombers.

The ministry also said the Reds airfield at Fochow, 40 miles west of the Matsu and 120 miles northwest of Formosa, is being remodeled. It added there are indications that an airfield at Swatow, 120 miles southwest of Quemoy which is directly across the Strait of Formosa, is being revamped.

The ministry's statement on the Fochow airport followed press reports that its runways are being lengthened for the use of jets.

These reports said quarters for thousands of workers lined the road to the field and at night more than 200 trucks carried construction materials to the site.

Faithful Attend Services On Good Friday

Sunday Slated To Bring Rites Commemorating The Wonder of Easter

By The Associated Press
Christians around the world made pilgrimages to Good Friday services today, commemorating the death of Christ on the cross.

And on Sunday, the story of Christ's resurrection, will ring out across the land in music and in words, in pageants, parades and stirring panoramas.

Today, in village church and vast cathedral, the faithful gathered for centuries-old ceremonies.

Thousands from many lands assembled at St. Peter's Basilica in Vatican City to attend the solemn mass of the Presanctified Host.

In the Holy Land, some 5,000 pilgrims, many of whom had to pass through the no man's land dividing warring Israel and Jordan, flocked into Arab Jerusalem.

Once again they followed the narrow, twisting cobblestone Via Dolorosa—the Way of the Cross.

GATHERED according to nationality, each group bore at its head a massive cross as they halted briefly at each of the 14 stations of the cross.

The procession formed a few hundred yards inside Jerusalem's east wall, where Christ was tried before Pontius Pilate. Its route followed the path which tradition says Christ's burdened steps took to Calvary, the site now of the sprawling Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

In the United States, Roman Catholic and Protestant churches from coast to coast threw open their doors to Good Friday services. Many scheduled three-hour sermons commemorating the hours on the cross.

On Sunday, from the high vistas of the Rockies to the quiet woods of New England, hundreds of thousands of Americans will gather under the open sky to celebrate the wonder of Easter.

There will be colorful, moving services in parks and stadiums, on mountaintops and canyon rims and waterfront piers, besides splashing waterfalls, in churches, theaters, cemeteries and city squares.

Many of the spectacles will begin before dawn, and the drama of Christ's passage through the night of death into the splendor of a new life will be retold as the sun rises on the land.

More than 75,000 people are expected for pre-dawn services in a huge natural amphitheater in Oklahoma's Wichita Mountains. A cast of more than 1,000 will take part in the pageant, called "The Pathways to Immortality."

AN OCEAN of calla lilies and people (about 75,000 lilies and 20,000 people) are expected to fill Hollywood Bowl for the 35th annual sunrise services there.

Another throng of approximately 35,000 will jam Salem Square in Winston-Salem, N. C., where Moravian Bishop J. Kenneth Pfohl, for the 25th consecutive year will intone at sunup: "The Lord is risen." Then a procession will move to the Moravian graveyard known as God's Acre.

At the Grand Canyon in Arizona, former Gov. Howard Pyle, now administrative assistant to President Eisenhower, will narrate the Easter story, against a breathtaking background of earth and music.

Long before dawn, up to 7,000 worshippers are expected to gather in the famed Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge, N. H.

Unusual church arrangements have been made at Mansfield, Vt., for a ski tow lift to take worshippers to the top of Mt. Mansfield for sunrise worship, breakfast at a ski lodge, then a ski run down the slope. Nonskiers will be taken down by the lift.

In an "ocean stadium" half a mile at sea on a pier off Atlantic City, N. J., thousands of others will gather.

Principal services in Washington, D. C., will be in Arlington Cemetery, at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital, the Carter Barron Amphitheater and the Navy Medical Center at nearby Bethesda.

Parent-Teacher Group Meets

Make Plans For Future Activities

And a good time was had by all, as the old saying goes, at Thursday night's meeting of the Memorial School Parent-Teacher Organization.

Some major business was disposed of and there were a lot of laughs in the program. When it was time to go home, everyone was full of sandwiches and salad.

The evening started off, as usual with the devotional period.

Mrs. Stanley Graulich, the president, opened the meeting with some thoughts about Good Friday and then Mrs. L. P. Brackney conducted the devotions and read "Legend of the Dogwood." Then the Lord's Prayer was recited in unison.

Mrs. Richard Snyder gave the report of the secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Maynard Draise reported for the card and flower committee.

Reports were read on the after-noon's Easter party for the pupils that was given by the room mothers.

Contributions of $5 each were voted for the Crippled Children's fund and the March of Dimes.

Prin. Elden Whiteside outlined plans for the Arbor Day observance that are now beginning to take form.

Mrs. Elmo Purdom, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Alvin Writsel were appointed to the nominating committee and instructed to bring in a slate of candidates for next year's officers at the next meeting.

AFTER CHECKING over the treasurer's report, the PTO voted to buy some athletic and recreation equipment, mostly for playground use. It is to include, among many other things, a volleyball set. Miss Gretchen Darlington, the senior nurse of the county Department of Health, explained the nationwide program for the vaccination of all first and second grade children in the campaign against polio if the Salk vaccine is approved officially after tests now in progress are completed.

Promotion exercises for the eighth grade pupils are to be held at the next meeting of the PTO. The date for this meeting has not yet been set.

On the table decorating committee for the May meeting were named Mrs. Marshall Frock, chairman, Mrs. Howard Burke, Mrs. Lloyd Cartwright and Mrs. Tom Maddux.

On the social committee for the meeting were placed Mrs. Martin O'Call, chairman, Mrs. Naomi Reif, Mrs. Maynard Draise, Mrs. Elmo Purdom and Mrs. Andrew Hutton.

The PTO always places considerable emphasis on the eighth grade promotion and this year is to be no exception, a member of the committee said.

WITH THE serious business disposed of, the meeting turned into lighter things—the style show that was put on by six women of the PTO.

They admitted that they may not have provided very many good tips of the latest styles, but there could be no disputing the hilarity they created.

Models for the style show were Mrs. Graulich, Mrs. Reif, Mrs. Earl Allison, Mrs. Draise, Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Cartwright.

Mrs. O'Call was the narrator and mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. John Rhoads, the music teacher, played the piano for the musical background for the entertainment.

The program was not all ridiculous for there was a duet, "Melody of Love," sung by Mrs. O'Call and Mrs. Hilbert Meyer and a reading, "Mandy's Wedding" by Mrs. Wayne McArthur.

The Easter hat parade brought the entertainment to a close and then everyone went from the auditorium with its stage upstairs where refreshments were served.

Israel reports that 40,000 tourists, including 14,000 Americans visited that country in 1954.

Fish and Game Hearing Monday

Sportsmen's Group Is To Meet First

Monday night's meeting of the Fayette County Fish and Game Association is going to start "right on time," Frank Boylan, the president said and then explained that the session would start promptly at 7:30 o'clock so that the association's business could be disposed of in time for the start at 8:30 o'clock of the hearing on fish and game laws that is sponsored by the state Division of Wildlife.

Both meetings are to be held, one right after the other, in the Farm Bureau auditorium.

At the association's regular meeting, which is to be packed into an hour, several committee reports are to be made.

One of them will be by the committee that has been planning the incorporation of the association as a non-profit organization under state laws.

The committee that was delegated to try to find a site in the country suitable for a headquarters and lodge for the association.

Another committee is to report on the progress it has made in carrying out the farm pond program.

AT THE OPEN public meeting that is to follow the association's business meeting—and in the same auditorium—a representative of the Division of Wildlife will be there to read the draft of the hunting laws for 1955 and the fishing laws for 1956 and then hear pro con views about them.

It is at this meeting, President Boylan explained, that the sportsmen here have their opportunity to voice their gripes and complaints about the hunting and fishing regulations and make suggestions for changes.

After a free and open discussion, he said, two representatives will be appointed.

The representatives are to register the views of the Fayette County group with the district meeting. Then representatives from the district are to be named to go to the state meeting.

Recommendations made by the state meeting, Boylan said, are used as a basis for the laws that govern hunting and fishing.

Sportsmen consider this public meeting one of the most important sports and a big turnout is anticipated.

11 Cars Derailed

RIPLEY — Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad officials reported derailling of 11 cars of a C&O freight train across the Ohio River in Kentucky early today. No injuries were reported.

U. S., French Plan Parley On Indochina

WASHINGTON (AP) — American and French officials are reported planning to meet April 20 to seek better coordination of their sometimes conflicting policy in Red-threatened Indochina.

The sessions probably will be held in Washington, although the French are said to be pressing Paris as the site. Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. will head the American delegation.

One of the major aims will be to seek a clearer French-American understanding of moves to be taken to bolster the anti-Communist government of Premier Ngo Dinh Diem in Southern Viet Nam.

France is formally pledged to support the American-backed Diem but most American officials believe the French could do far more to insure his success.

Ever since Diem took over control of the government he has been embroiled in numerous arguments with dissident groups having private armies.

There has been a brief armed struggle between troops loyal to Diem and forces of one of these groups. Special U. S. Ambassador J. Lawton Collins arranged a truce in the fighting for a week.

A major difference between French and American officials has been an effort by France to make some sort of economic deals with the Communists in Red-controlled North Viet Nam.

Employment Of Minors Shows Drop

COLUMBUS (AP)—Decline in employment of minors in Ohio during 1954 broke off a long, upward trend, the State Department of Industrial Relations reported today.

Margaret A. Mahoney, director, said the report on employment of minors in Ohio is the first ever issued in the state.

The child labor analysis shows minor employment dropping from 95,062 in 1953 to 57,668 in 1954, a decline of 39 per cent. Figures are the number of work permits issued minors under 18.

The analysis shows employment of boys dropped off more than the employment of girls last year. Work permits issued boys went down 43 per cent as against a drop of 35 per cent for girls. The director commented that an unusually large decrease in minors working in manufacturing industries, where mostly boys are employed, helps explain this difference.

Other facts brought out in the analysis:
1. Girls are steadily becoming a larger proportion of the total.
2. About one-third of work permits are issued for regular full-time employment and the rest for part-time or vacation work.
3. Heaviest employment of minors is in the retail trade.

Representatives Of 20 Counties At Meeting Here

Plant and Maintenance Men From Hospital Association Attend

Fayette County Memorial Hospital was host this week to 25 representatives from 20 counties representing the Plant and Maintenance Section of the Central District Council of the Ohio Hospital Association, who held their bi-monthly meeting here.

The meeting was occupied with a general discussion of the problems relating to plant and maintenance of hospitals. The presiding officer was Earl J. Williams, chief engineer of Mercy Hospital at Portsmouth. The program was of an educational character.

THE PRINCIPAL speaker for the session was Robert Jones Mayfield, a native of Jackson, Ohio, who is on the staff of the community relations department of the Goodyear Atomic Corporation with headquarters at the atomic plant near Waverly.

One of the high points of his talk to the assembled hospital representatives was the implication of the use of by-products of atomic energy in connection with hospital work.

Mayfield is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, a member of the Jackson Junior Chamber of Commerce and director of the Jackson Red Cross Chapter.

During the meeting held at the hospital here a tour of the entire plant was made by all the guests. This elicited many compliments regarding the hospital plan here, its equipment, its upkeep and its general program of activities.

JOHN WILLIAMS, maintenance superintendent of the Memorial Hospital here, received recognition during the election of officers of the group, by being chosen vice-president. Other officers elected were E. G. Enderle, president, and James C. Lawson, secretary. The outgoing president is Earl Williams chief engineer at Mercy Hospital at Portsmouth.

Enderle is superintendent of maintenance at Benjamin Franklin Hospital at Columbus. Lawson is superintendent of buildings and grounds at the Ohio TB Hospital on the Ohio State University campus at Columbus.

Governor's Award Goes To Peale

COLUMBUS (AP)—The governor's Award for 1954, Ohio's highest tribute to a native son, has been awarded Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, author of "The Power of Positive Thinking."

The New York City pastor was given a plaque for "advancement of Ohio's prestige." Gov. Frank J. Lausche made the presentation yesterday before the Advertising Club of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Peale is a native of Bowersville, Greene County, and a former newsmen in Findlay.

Ohio Real Estate Panel Honored

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Assn. of Real Estate Boards was honored yesterday for having moved and preserved the Ohio Company land office in Marietta, one of the first real estate offices in the country.

The 166-year-old building was moved last October from the banks of the Ohio River to the Marietta Campus Martius Museum. The National Assn. of Real Estate Boards gave the Ohio Association a plaque for its efforts.

Atomic Workers Get Pay Boost

PORTSMOUTH (AP)—Goodyear Atomic Corp. reached an agreement today on its first contract with a CIO union representing production workers at the Waverly atomic energy plant.

The company and the union, the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International, announced an across-the-board five cents an hour wage increase will be made effective following ratification of the contract by the union and approval by the Atomic Energy Commission. Present pay rates are varied.

The accidental death rates of passengers on U. S. railroads in 1954 was .07 per 100 million passenger miles.

Plans for Sign-up Of Members For C of C Take Form

Plans for the Chamber of Commerce member sign-up today were beginning to take on definite form. The four days of May 17, 18, 19 and 20 have been set as the time for the concentrated campaign. Each day is to start with a breakfast at the Washington Hotel Coffee Shop when the campaign for the day will be outlined and the reports on the previous day's sign-up will be made and progress checked.

A sort of victory dinner has been set for the night of the final day—May 17—at Anderson's Drive-in Restaurant.

Although there has been no announcement yet, it is understood that there will be a prize worth going after for the individual who signs up the most members.

Supt. Smith Back From School Meeting

Supt. W. A. Smith of the Washington C. H. schools today is back in his office cleaning up the business that he had accumulated while he was in Cleveland for the annual four-day meeting of the American Association of School Administrators.

He was called on to serve as the chief consultant for a group that undertook an investigation and study of public relations in connection with public schools. He said he had received many inquiries (word from Cleveland said many compliments) on his "School Report Card" that appears regularly in the Record-Herald and the picture sequence and tape-recorded narration of the Washington C. H. High School curriculum.

Supt. Smith said that while in Cleveland, he had an opportunity to talk with a number of school administrators—and a couple of state department of Education officials—about some of the problems facing the schools here. While none of them gave the full solution to the problems, he said he had picked up some very good ideas from experiences of administrators in other schools.

Sales Tax Again Ahead In County

Again Fayette County's sale of prepaid tax receipts for the week ending May 26, were substantially more than for the same week a year ago.

For the week the total was $8,769.78 and a year ago the amount was $7,670.70.

Greene and Highland counties showed decreases in this area, while in the state generally receipts were $621,000 ahead of those for the same period in 1954.

Officers of VFW Here Are Formally Installed

Don Fowler is now at the head of the O. E. Harway post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here.

With past Commander Walter Whaley administering the oath of office, he was installed as the new commander, Homer Miller, a past quartermaster, was installed as the vice commander and then was appointed as the post adjutant. Ted Wilburn is the new quartermaster.

Refreshments were served following the installation in the post club room.

Experts estimate that about a fifth of all food planted by man is destroyed by diseases and insect pests before it reaches the table.

Achievements Are Acclaimed

More Than 150 Hold Ninth Annual Event

One hundred fifty women assembled Wednesday in the Dayton Power and Light Co. auditorium for the ninth annual Achievement Day. These women represented 22 organized home demonstration clubs and ten organized Garden Clubs with a membership of nearly 500 women.

Mrs. Maryon County, president of the Fayette County Home Demonstration Council, presided.

The exhibits for the projects taught for 1954-1955 were on display. One on "Nutrition and Family Circle" was prepared by Jasper Township Club. Other responsibilities for the days were Washington Township and Sunny East, programs: Progressive, name tags, Chat and Stitch, offering: A. R. T. Club, and Bellare, chairs: Bloomington, devotions: Concord Township, cookies: Dogwood Club, registration: Fayette, Know your Neighbor, Marion and Jasper Townships, exhibits: Greene Township, drinks: Perry townships, titles for exhibits: Wayne Township, tea table: Sugar Grove, tea table center piece: Modern Homemakers, D.A.Y.P., Union and Yatesville, restoration.

The program was one of the most interesting ever presented to the Home Demonstration Clubs. J. P. Schmidt, professor in Rural Sociology Extension, moderated a panel made up of Nagib Ibrahim from Egypt, Abbar Ghezlabash from Iran, Kern Oh from Korea and Charles Grimes from Brown county, who was an IFYE student to Denmark in 1954.

This panel pointed out how the present economic conditions of their countries helped to influence steps toward developing these countries and the dangers that they might encounter.

Installed as the officers for the Council for 1955-56 were: Mrs. Herschel Hulett, Progressive Club, president; Mrs. T. N. Willis, Washington Township Club, vice president.

dent; Mrs. Laverne Morgan, D.A.Y.P. Club, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Gene Carman, Union township club, publicity; Mrs. Worley Melvin, Sugar Grove Club, radio and Louise Ritter, Perry township club, Alumna chairman.

'Open House' Set By Auto Dealers

Event of Next Week Arranged For Public

Eight of Washington C. H.'s new car and new truck dealers will hold public Open "Houses" during National "Spotlight on Automobiles" week beginning Monday, April 11, Ray Brandenburg, event chairman, announced today.

The dealerships will be open to visitors daily and trained employees will be on hand to explain each phase of the complex operation of a modern auto sales and service plant.

Tours for special groups may be arranged by appointment with each dealer, Brandenburg said, adding that group inspections might be of special interest to students contemplating a career in the automobile business. Women's groups, too, he pointed out, might find such tours answer many of their questions about the care and maintenance of their cars.

"Both as employers and as servants of the motoring public, automobile dealers are an important part of the economic and civic life of Washington C. H.," Brandenburg pointed out. "We think it's a good idea to get to know our friends and neighbors better."

Angered Mother Marches Escaped Son Back To Jail

DYERSBURG, Tenn. (AP)—Jailer Frank Gregory sleepily answered the door early yesterday and was surprised to see young James Beard, firm in the grip of his mother.

He investigated and found that five of his Negro prisoners had battered through the jail wall under cover of a thunderstorm. Beard was one of them.

The escapees separated after sliding down a blanket rope from the second floor. Beard, 19, went home. His mother marched him right back to jail. Another of the escapees was caught later but three are still at large.

Gregory said the men used a window weight, a teaspoon and a hinge from a folding bunk to break off a rusty steel plate used to patch a hole cut through the wall in another breakout years ago.

Lawyer, 93, Dies

CLEVELAND (AP)—Harry Marshall Farnsworth, who probably practiced law here longer than any other Cleveland barrister, died yesterday at 93. He was admitted to the bar in 1882 and retired from practice in 1950.

Everyone Welcome

Easter and Its Meaning For All of Us

Again we are in the Easter season. How much does the average man and woman in this and other communities, give serious thought to what this means other than nicer weather as a rule, or a chance to take the family out in the car?

Each year the story of Easter is told and retold. Many fine sermons are heard pointing to the lessons of this event. But just as most people pay little or no attention to the trends of their government until some crisis arises, so do only a limited number of people think of Easter as anything more than the brightening of weather prospects and resulting changes in their own living habits.

It was once upon a time, close to a million days ago, as spring drifted over the barren hills and sandy wastes along the eastern Mediterranean, the most astonishing of a series of momentous and extraordinary events occurred at Jerusalem of the Roman province of Judea.

For some three years a carpenter known as Jesus of Nazareth, proclaiming himself to be the promised Messiah sent to save mankind, had been gaining converts to his cause, having displayed some unusual powers, such as the ability to walk on the waves, turn water to wine, heal the sick and raise the dead. Despite his claims and his powers, he was not ostentatious, but humble, kindly and understanding.

The Nazarene came out of the hills into Jerusalem that fateful springtime some 20 centuries ago.

Church authorities, long prepared for the appearance of such a being, did not choose to recognize the carpenter as such. This needn't be surprising. Such a one appearing in our midst today might well be held suspect and wind up in jail.

Jesus received such treatment, only more so. The church men decided that he must go. They fabricated charges of blasphemy and usurpation of civil authority. They demanded his death on the cross. Reluctantly the Roman governor yielded to pressure and let them have their way.

The crucifixion was carried out on a Friday on heights along the Damascus road outside the northern gate of the city. On Sunday Jesus' tomb was found to be empty. He subsequently appeared among his followers to urge that his work be carried on. And then, as those who chronicled the events put it, he "ascended into heaven."

The Nazarene had taught that belief in him as the son of God and kindness, humility and tolerance could spell life after death.

The doctrine combined the easiness of an old shoe with the eternal riddle of whence we come and whither we go. It was what man was looking for, and it fired his mind and emotions from that day forward.

It is still working for good against the tremendous forces of bigotry and evil as Eastertide comes round again.

Arctic Ready For Easter

OTTAWA (P) — Canada's 9,000 Eskimos, too, are getting their best furs and gayest colored clothing in order for another Easter far above the Arctic Circle—in Aklavik, Paulatuk, Arctic Bay, Pond Inlet, and a score of stations strung across the flowering wastes farther south. Missionaries are thinking about their brief sermons, rehearsing their tiny choirs and arranging for the cookies and candy that are part of every major religious festival in the northern territories.

The old hymns are always a big part of the celebration. The tribespeople sing in their tribal dialect, but the tunes are the familiar standbys.

Both hymns and prayers are written out in a sort of shorthand representing language sounds. It's the Eskimo's only common written language.

And for the little groups of English and French speaking people—doctors, nurses, traders, mounties, weather observers, prospectors—the holiday will renew a sense of community.

Even out in the trapping camps of three or four families,

the Eskimos have seen the Roman Catholic priest of the Oblate Fathers or the padres of the Anglican Church riding circuit by dog team, bringing a spiritual message and checking to see whether anyone is sick or injured.

"It is an inspiring sight to see them come into such an ice camp," says Alec Stevenson, a veteran of the north now working in Ottawa.

"They mush in on the sled. The families gather around for a chat. Then, with the barest of ritual and adornment, his parka pushed back from his head, his breath frosts on the air, the padre reads a short familiar prayer. He says a few words that might be a sermon. A hymn or two is sung. Then he's off to another camp."

More than 7,000 of the Eskimos are concentrated in the eastern sectors of the north, around Hudson Bay. Fairly large centers, with schools, medical services and nursing care, are growing up.

In Aklavik, considered a big community, there is a unique painting of the Virgin Mary surrounded by people and animals. The faces are Eskimo and the animals are those the Eskimos know, not the traditional ones. Art translates religion into terms they understand.

Easter has a special renewal theme for the Eskimos. Shortly after, following the long winter, comes the brief, sunny season in which vegetables and fruits grow quickly.

Stevenson, who often gets away from his desk for a trip back, said "nobody is really isolated in the North now." He said:

"Used to be you'd have to wait for the ice to go out enough to allow one boat to make one trip a year to bring in mail, fruit, the extras that count so much."

"Now up there they can expect four or five trips by planes which fly over the bay ice. If the planes don't come in to land, they at least will make frequent mail and package drops. And folks can get out, too, hitching rides in company or private planes."

Evidence of Mistrust of Russia

Vice Admiral Wilson Brown had the extraordinary experience of serving as the naval aide to four presidents, Coolidge, Hoover, Roosevelt, and for a short time, Truman. Few men have had the opportunity of being so constantly with so many presidents of the United States.

In his memoirs which I read in the magazine, "American Heritage," he recounts this experience with President Truman:

"During the wakeful hours of the night before I had asked myself what was the most important problem of the war situation that I should bring to President Truman's attention while I still had the chance. I decided that the increasing Russian arrogance since Yalta was the most important. Circumstances gave me a good opening, for I had the report of a lend-lease that came to my desk each month for delivery to the President. And so when Leahy had finished his brief summing up of problems before the Joint Staff, I told President Truman about Stalin's bitter messages accusing us of bad faith in negotiations for the surrender of Austrian troops and of President Roosevelt's angry reply. I mentioned also Roosevelt's growing concern for the increasing number of lend-lease supplies then en route to Russia a perfectly amazing list of shiploads of locomotives, railroad cars, miles of track, trucks, artillery, gasoline, food — and stated that the Russian people were not being told where those vast stores came from, and that the Russian government never even said 'Thank you' to us. I urged the President to take the list home and study it carefully at his leisure. 'Thank you, I will,' he said, and I felt confident that he would not forget the matter in the flurry of his first day of office."

It is a small episode but it opens the door to broad speculation as to what might have developed in American-Russian relations had Roosevelt lived out his fourth term. We have here authentic, internal evidence that Roosevelt was growing concerned over "the increasing number of reports of Russian misdeeds." This was after Yalta where Roosevelt gave Stalin more lands and souls than Stalin asked for. It was Roosevelt who suggested the restoration of Russia's "rights" in Manchuria, which effectively made it possible for Russia to conquer China and set up a Chinese Communist government in that country.

Roosevelt, we know, was not moving in the dark. He had conceived "the grand design," the assumption that American generosity would convince Stalin that this country had no imperialistic intentions, that we sought only to give but not to take.

Nobody has yet reported what Stalin thought of it all. In terms of Marxian dialectical materialism, he must have believed us to be stupid, because no nation could succeed in the struggle for existence which gave away its strength and potentials to its enemies. And Stalin knew who the next enemy of the United States would be because Lenin had announced it many years before.

Roosevelt's disappointment must have been unendurable. He had staked the fate of his nation on the correctness of his appraisal of Stalin's character. He had given to Russia — that is, to Stalin — $11,000,000,000 of America's wealth to win the communist leader over to Roosevelt's conception of the future, embodied perhaps in the Atlantic Charter. He must have suspected or even known before his death, if we are to take the hint from Admiral Wilson Brown, that he was dealing with a bandit and a blackmailer who would demand and demand and give nothing.

The tragedy for Roosevelt must have been that he knew that he was dying and that he could do nothing to undo the evils of Tcheran and Yalta.

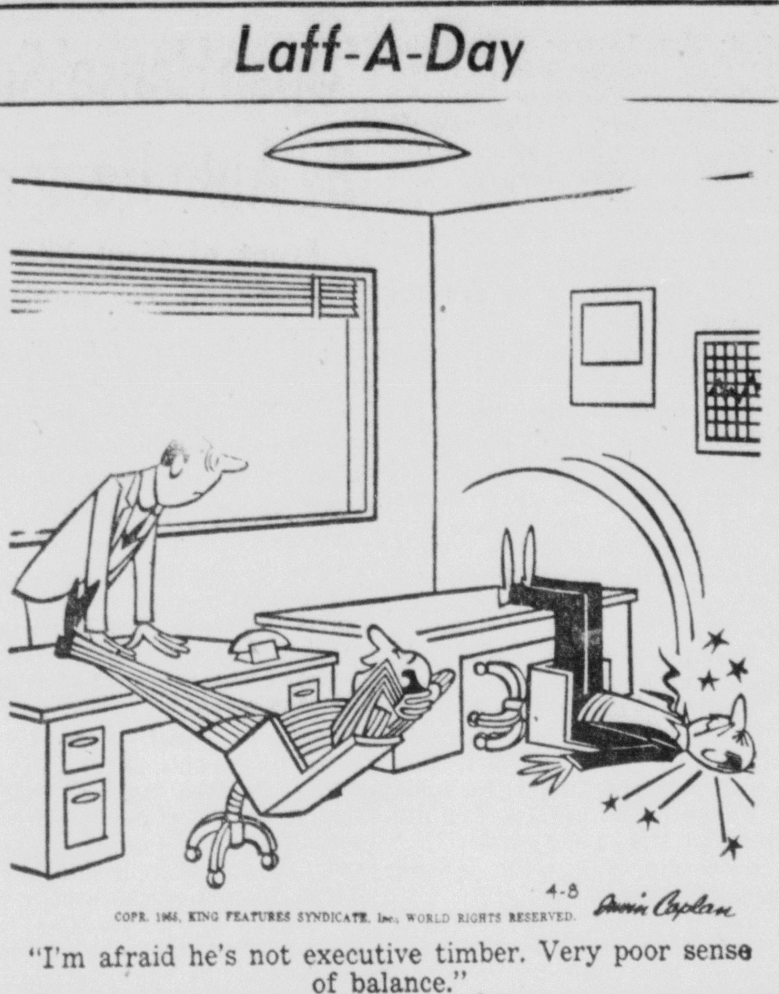

But this is not understandable: Why did he not call in Harry Truman, his inevitable successor, to tell him what he had in his thoughts? It will be recalled that when Truman took over, it was in an atmosphere of uncertainty and confusion. Truman had not been kept in touch with the situation. He played no such role as Richard Nixon does in the Eisenhower administration. Roosevelt must have known that Harry Truman could not be ready for transactions with Stalin. Nevertheless, Roosevelt took not one step to prepare his successor for the San Francisco or Potsdam conferences. It is perhaps a problem in psychology rather than politics.

Diet and Health Disorder of Eyelids May Be Hard to Cure

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Blepharitis marginalis is one of many minor disorders which may affect your eyelids. While it isn't a serious disorder, it is uncomfortable, often resistant to treatment and difficult to clear up.

Symptoms of Disorder
Symptoms to watch for are itching, burning and redness around the margins of your eyelids. The lids may also swell, and you may lose your eyelashes.

The lining membrane known as the conjunctiva may be irritated, and your eyes may water a good deal and be irritated by light. In some cases, ulcers may form and you may have scales or crusts.

Allergy May Cause
This disorder sometimes is due to some form of allergy. Frequently, it occurs in persons suffering from seborrhea dermatitis, an inflammatory skin disease.

You are more likely to be bothered with blepharitis marginalis if your resistance is low. Systemic infection, poor hygiene and an improper diet may cut your resistance and make you easier prey for this disorder.

While this is a mild disorder, it's important that you consult your doctor. If it is caused by an allergy, he can help you determine its source.

He may also advise penicillin ointment or some sulfa drugs. Large doses of vitamin A might be helpful, particularly if there is evidence that you are deficient in this vitamin.

Massaging the margins of the lid with salicylic acid and sulfur ointments usually helps to get rid of the crusts. Daily application of such preparations as silver nitrate might help, too.

Nightly Treatment
Application of petroleum before you go to bed at night, will help prevent the lids from sticking together when you awake.

Cold compresses several times each day may be of some help. Place an ice bag or cloth soaked in cold water on your affected eye for from 10 to 15 minutes several times daily.

Sometimes a physician might advise vaccines made from staphylococci, a bacteria.

As I said, this disorder doesn't respond quickly to treatment. So don't get discouraged if you don't get immediate results.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
G. P.: Will the giving of penicillin prevent a measles rash from erupting?
Answer: There is no evidence that penicillin will affect measles in any way except to help keep certain complications, such as pneumonia, from developing.

Politicians See Ike, Adlai Opposed Again

WASHINGTON (P) — Results of state and local elections strengthened a belief among politicians today that President Eisenhower and Adlai E. Stevenson may square off again in 1956.

Republican and Democratic national chairmen claimed good omens for their parties in conflicting statements yesterday over the outcome of balloting in Michigan, Chicago, St. Louis and smaller cities east and west.

But to many political strategists the inconclusive results were such as to indicate both parties will be looking for their strongest candidates next year.

GOP Chairman Leonard W. Hall, who says he assumes Eisenhower will run again, said, "No one in the Republican party should have any delusions about the hard and tough fight we face."

Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York said yesterday he still hopes "prayerfully" Eisenhower will run. He did not say whether he had discussed the matter with the President.

Democratic Chairman Paul M. Butler, maintaining strict public neutrality about his party's choice of a nominee, interpreted the election results as "a Democratic trend that is running in the United States this year."

Cambridge Phone Dispute Settled

CAMBRIDGE (P) — Striking employees of the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. returned to work today after a one-day walkout.

John Sidlo, division manager, said an agreement was reached after all-day negotiations yesterday, but did not disclose details.

Carl Mitchell, president of Local 4375, Communications Workers of America, said the walkout stemmed from working conditions, including union request for an extra night operator and posting of a seniority list.

Labor Demands Under Study

WASHINGTON — The most dangerous threat to continued economic stability is Labor's demands for huge wage raises in several key industries. Although government officials have in mind Walter P. Reuther's insistence on a guaranteed annual income, they point out that the same trend exists in other fields.

Those government executives are not anti-Labor, believing that the workers are worthy of their hire. As Henry Ford taught years ago, they know that the foundation of America's envied economic supremacy consists of consumers of vast purchasing power, which they derive mainly from flat factory pay envelopes. In private industry, these former heads of great corporations enjoyed excellent relations with union employees and organizations.

LABOR OUT — But Reuther and like-minded union leaders, in their opinion, may yet price Labor out of markets and jobs. By making production costs so heavy, they will reduce the popular demand for the things they turn out on the assembly line. The inevitable result will be chronic unemployment and a falling wage scale.

According to this belief, Reuther errs when he says that higher wages will maintain mass buying power in the same proportion as today. For some reason, right or wrong—indeed, Reuther voices this same complaint—prices resulting from increased manufacturing costs tend to rise faster than wages.

This vicious circle, it is forecast, will be aggravated by smaller profits, decreased tax revenue to federal, state and local governments, and a compensating increase in taxes at all levels.

Even now, it is estimated that taxes on a $2,000 automobile amount to 28 per cent, or $560. And there are only a few makes selling as low as $2,000. Erstwhile low-priced cars are becoming semi-luxury products today. Herbert Hoover can blame the lack of "two cars in every garage" on union, not Republican, politicians.

THEN, NOW—John L. Lewis' experience should be a lesson to Reuther, in Washington's opinion. With the blessing of F.D.R. and Harry S. Truman, the president of the United Mine Workers demanded and obtained wages of $18 to $20 a day, with overtime, in the war years. He had industrialists and politicians under his big thumb then. He was eulogized as the outstanding "genius" of all Labor history.

Today, more than 200,000 of his miners in a score of states are jobless, or working only parttime. They have exhausted their federal and state relief funds. He has had to cut monthly pension payments—financed out of royalties on each ton of coal—from $100 to $50. The shorter hours, vacations with pay and other "fringe" benefits he gained are only a mockery in the ghost towns he has created.

Gas and oil now heat and light and operate more homes and factories than coal does. Railroads have substituted diesels for coal-burning locomotives. The competing fuels have become cheaper because John L. has priced his product out of the market and his men out of jobs.

Today, the coal industry is deathly "sick." John L. did not dare ask for an increase when his old contract terminated several months ago.

WARNING—The textile workers of New England and rug makers of New York constitute another warning to the Reutherites. Union demands have forced these mills to move South, where the wage scale and taxes es and power—hydro, not steam—are far lower, and where employees are willing to work longer hours.

Migrating manufacturers admit that excessive labor costs were the principal reason for the southward shift. As John L. has had to do, some textile and rug unions have torn up existing contracts and agreed to accept wage reductions rather than go unemployed. Other AFL locals have had to finance a plant with their own funds to keep them from moving or closing down.

In Washington's opinion and dread, Reuther may find with John L. that the wages of excessive demands are unemployment!

CAPTOWN, South Africa (P)—Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, the archbishop of Canterbury, said today there is "no truth whatsoever" in reports that Princess Margaret is to marry Capt. Peter Townsend.

THE GOLDEN DAY

The bell rings, and its message is a clarion call across the countryside. Beneath it, white lilies touched by the sunlight look upward toward a cloudless sky.

This is Easter . . . the golden day . . . the day of promise and joy. This is the time when God proffers the great gift of eternal life . . . when he shows, in the lesson of the Tomb . . . that there is no death.

There is no more joyous occasion in the Church than Easter. Against the setting of Spring, it touches the land with beauty, bringing a new upsurge of hope, thrilling the young, comforting the old. Easter is the time to rededicate your faith . . . to listen again to a wonderful promise . . . to receive again a glorious gift. Start attending Church regularly by beginning at Easter.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Guild Members Combine For Dinner Meeting

The Westminster Guild of the First Presbyterian Church met for its quarterly Association meeting and was preceded with a supper in the church dining room served by Circle Two with Mrs. C. S. Kelly, the leader in charge.

Following the delicious repast the meeting was held in the church sanctuary with the president, Mrs. J. Rankin Paul giving the call to worship.

Mrs. C. L. Musser accompanied on the organ for the singing of the Association Hymn and the Hymn, "Our Father God, Our Help in Ages Past".

Mrs. John D. Forsythe read the secretary's report which was approved, and the treasurer, Miss Kathleen Stookey, also gave her report.

It was voted to give an additional $50 to each of the Mission Boards and also to encourage the young people of the church who are either studying at present or who are actively engaged in the work of the church, by sending them a cash remembrance and they are Miss Hazel Engle, student at Marysville College, Marysville, Tenn., Miss Ann Hise, student at Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, Miss Margaret Parrett, Theological student at Western Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. James Gardner, Fraternal Worker of the Presbyterian Mission Board who is now working in Switzerland.

Dr. Dorothy Ferris of the Frances Newton Hospital, Ferropolis,

Punjab, India is also being remembered.

Mrs. Paul announced the Spring Presbyterian which will be held in Columbus April 18th at the Overbrook Presbyterian Church and Miss Florence Ludy of Kansas City, Missouri, Area Secretary for Women's work in the West Central Area will be the speaker.

At this meeting Mrs. Ormond Dewey will be installed as President of the Columbus Presbyterian and Mrs. McCoy Gardner will have the office of Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Don Wood led in impressive devotions using as her theme "He Is Hope" and referring us to Christ's Sermon on the Mount as the answer to Job's question "If a man die will he live again?" and closed with prayer.

Mrs. Dwight Roads, Jr. Second Vice President in charge of Foreign Missions introduced the speaker for the evening, Mrs. Maxwell Becker, who has just returned from Pakistan where her husband was in the Forestry Service of the U. S. Government under the Point Four Program.

Mrs. Becker a charming person, dressed in an official Pakistan costume of beautiful blue figured silk brought to her audience a most realistic picture of the life of the underprivileged people of both East and West Pakistan and also India where her two children were in school. She was living in East Pakistan when the natives celebrated their seventh anniversary of Independence August 14, 1954.

In her talk she brought out the fact that there is no easy solution to the problems of a new nation, especially when it is divided geographically and the two sections have practically nothing in common except their religion, and between the two lies India, their enemy. It will take understanding, help, and patience along with education before Pakistan can become a united, peaceful and prosperous country.

Mrs. Becker was accompanied from Columbus by Miss Rachel Dennison.

Special Services for Easter Planned for All Churches Here

Practically every church in the city and county is giving particular attention to the celebration of Easter and its great significance in the Christian world.

Special sunrise services, cantatas, sermons, special music and the usual Easter decorations are being combined in celebration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

One of the largest church attendances on record is anticipated for Sunday, Easter Day, and some of the larger churches are giving much attention to elaborate decorations with Easter bloom, after which many of the flowers will be given to those who are unable to attend the services.

Special services in addition to regular services, have been announced by the following churches.

AT GRACE CHURCH

The observance of Easter at Grace Methodist Church started Thursday night, with a largely attended communion service.

At 6 A. M. Sunday the sunrise service, always a popular service and well attended, will be held, with Don Clay the speaker, and with special music.

The next service at the church will be at 8:00 A. M., which will be a duplicate service of 10:30 A. M., the regular hour for worship services. The same music will be given by the choir and same sermon delivered by the pastor.

The church will be elaborately decorated with Easter lilies, and Mrs. Arch Riber is chairman of the committee supervising the lilies. A large number of families and church organizations contribute lilies to bank the altars.

The choir under direction of William Cliff, has prepared special music for the various services, and the pastor's sermon will be on "Easter is the Way of Life".

Children's baptismal service will be held at 4 P. M.

SPECIAL SERVICE

The senior Baptist youths of the First Baptist Church are giving a play for the Sunrise Service Easter morning at 7:00 P. M. It is "Out of the Darkness," by John McGreevy, and is a story about Cornelius, who was one of the Roman soldiers ordered by Pilate to guard the tomb of Christ.

For money he and his fellow guards lied, defying the truth of the Resurrection. It reaches a wonderful climax as his blind son is visited by the Prophet, Silas.

The youths taking part in the play are: "Cornelius" played by John Sommers; "Bernice," his aunt, Nancy Hurt; Uria, a high priest, John Knedler; Drusella, his wife, Nancy Reno; Ruth, a charming girl, Nancy Merritt; Titus the blind son of Cornelius and Drusella, Norman Chaney, and Silas a deacon, Larry Hurt.

Mrs. Charles Hurt is director of the play.

The members of the church and the public are cordially invited.

The choir directed by Mrs. Coyt Stookey — Accompanied by Miss Margaret Gibson, will present the Cantata, "The Triumphant Hour," by Ellen Jane Lorenz.

The soloists will sing the words of characters in the Resurrection story. They are:

Experts Study Way To Crack Traffic Snarl

COLUMBUS (AP)—Delegates to a highway conference here yesterday heard four traffic experts suggest as many aids to easing urban traffic problems.

The panel discussed snarled city parking in the second day of the ninth annual Ohio Highway Engineering Conference.

Suggestions included: James V. Musick, Columbus traffic engineer: Combine use of public transportation and suburban terminal parking lots.

Dr. Robert Howe, University of Cincinnati: The best way to cope with the problem is to adhere to parking regulations.

G. A. Berry, Ohio State Automobile Assn.: Finance off-street parking facilities.

D. K. Finley, Columbus Chamber of Commerce: "The only answer to the problem may ultimately be to eliminate curb parking in congested areas completely."

Berry said he believed parking meters are the best method to increase turnover of cars for much-desired curb space.

The conference, sponsored jointly by the Department of Civil Engineering at Ohio State University and the Ohio Department of Highways, ends today with a morning general session devoted to addresses on highway building.

Cops Making Notes On All Bellyaches

Florists Set For Biggest Spurt Of Year

Easter Season Opens Huge Turnover For Greenhouse Industry

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Good Friday finds the canyons of finance empty and silent. The bulls and bears have departed today from Wall Street.

And overnight, while the stock tickers go silent for the long weekend of religious observation, the Easter lilies spring up from the pavements in the midst of Rockefeller Center here. Flowers burst forth along the sidewalks in front of florist shops around the world.

Easter is the season of flowers. Millions of blooms crisscross the nation and span the seas. They pour into the cities by train, truck, ship and plane. This is the flower growers' top season, followed by sales for Mother's Day and Christmas.

This year, the florists predict, will see the greatest number of blossoms ever to deck the churches and homes of people of many lands. For weeks, growers have been forcing or pinching back the plants so blooms will spring forth like a miracle for this weekend.

Cut flowers and potted plants are shipped in from distant fields.

Bermuda and Hawaii send their offerings, along with those of California and parts of the South where flower growing for the various holidays is a major industry.

The practice of telegraphing flower orders has spread around the world, with some 18,000 florists in more than 100 countries linked through a clearing house device known as Interflora, of which the American affiliate is the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Assn. The clearing houses where the florists settle their accounts are in Detroit, London, and Zurich, Switzerland.

Ed Ludwig, president of the Sunday, beginning at 6:30 A. M.

The program follows:

Poem "Good Friday" by Mrs. Charles Keaton;

Scripture reading by Mrs. Martin O'Cull;

Easter Medley by Gerald Leasure.

Reading "Out of Death-Life" by Allen Hays.

In the east for scenes at the Sepulcher are reader, Mrs. Charles Wood; Joseph of Arimathea W. A. Armbrust; Salome, Mrs. Bryan Leasure; Mary, Mrs. Harry Fichthorn; Four Soldiers, Larry O'Cull; Donnie Hyer and Bennie Backenstoe Gen O'Cull. Two Angels, Sharon Kerns, Joyce Warnecke. Music by the Senior Choir. Solos by Mrs. James McClaskie and Richard Kelly.

Postlude by Jane Kerns.

Mrs. Norman Armbrust is the choir director.

The regular Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. followed by the Morning Worship Service by Dr. Paul H. Elliott, with Holy Sacrament and the reception of new members.

Easter Lilies will decorate the altar.

TO GIVE 22nd EASTER

At 7 o'clock Easter morning the Leadership Training Class of the First Presbyterian Church will present its 22nd consecutive Easter Sunrise Service.

The class feels that it has a fine program arranged for this event. There will be two solos, one, by Mrs. Gail Pearson, and the other, by Robert Parish.

Mrs. Howard Perrill will read a poem that she composed. Mrs. Robert Poppen will read the Scripture.

The message for the service will be given by Mrs. Loren Noble, who is a former member of the class. Mrs. Noble spoke at this service about eight years ago and the class feels that many remember her inspiring message.

Mrs. Marian Gage will play several organ numbers. All are invited to attend this service.

American group, says telegraphed orders for Easter flowers are running seven per cent ahead of a year ago.

Total flower sales this Easter are expected to set a record at around 100 million dollars. This would be five per cent above a year ago.

The airplane has brought a big boost to the floral business. This year it is booming. Pan American World Airways says the volume of Easter flowers flown from Bermuda, Puerto Rico and Honolulu has increased 20 per cent this year. Eastern Airlines reports air shipments of flowers from the South into the New York area is up 15 per cent.

American, TWA, and United fly tons of blossoms out of California for eastern points during Holy Week.

Recent cold waves hit North

Carolina's iris, and some outdoor roses were nipped in the South. But most Easter flowers come from greenhouses and the supply this year is said to be ample.

You can find anything you're looking for, from a spray for the lapel to some real fanciful creations.

One florist on New York's Park Avenue is offering an all-flower Easter rabbit. The bunny is concocted from white carnations with ears of green leaves, a rosebud for a mouth and blue cornflowers for eyes.

In the same neighborhood you can get a large jeweled Easter egg filled with pink orchids. It costs $150.

In Latin the "calends" was the first day of the month—hence the English word "calendar."

Spring Sport Championships Due Last 2 May Weekends

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's four-play high school spring sports program will be split over two weekends this year for the first time.

With the Western Conference track-field championships scheduled May 27-28 at Ohio Stadium, the high school cinder events have been moved up to May 20-21. Originally they were set for May 27-28.

The baseball, golf and tennis championships will not be molested by the conflict in dates and will remain on the May 27-28 program. High School Commissioner H. W. Emswiler said today.

Prior to the state meets, district qualifiers will be held in all four sports on a far-flung front.

Sites of the May 14 district track meets are: Class A and B at Delaware, Uhrichsville, Bowling Green, Mansfield, Athens and Cincinnati (Class A at Cincinnati, May 13) and Dayton, and Class B at Lagrange Falls, Berea and Springfield.

Golf tests are booked May 20-21 at Columbus St. Clairsville, Cleveland (two tournaments), Ravenna, Toledo, Lima, Dayton and Cincinnati. Tennis qualifiers the same dates are at Columbus, Martins Ferry, Cleveland, Akron, Bowling Green, Dayton and Cincinnati. There are no class distinctions in golf and tennis.

District Class A baseball tournaments are scheduled for the May 13-14 weekend in Columbus, Bridgeport, Akron, Athens, Dayton, Cincinnati and at northwestern site still to be selected. The Class B district events are at Columbus, Bridgeport, Kent, Coldwater, Clyde, Holgate, Dunkirk, Athens, Dayton, Piqua and Cincinnati.

Regional baseball play, from which four teams in each division will emerge for the state tournament, are at: Class A—Bridgeport (2 from northeast, 1 from east and 1 from southeast), Cleveland (4 from northeast), Cincinnati (4 from southwest), and a northwestern site, still not named (3 from north-west, one from central); Class B—Columbus (2 central, 1 east 1 south-east), Kent (4 northeast), Kalida (4 northwest), and Dayton (4 southwest).

A host of independent relay meets will help the track-field athletes tune up for the championship races, but the state finals are not expected to be as spectacular as those of 1954.

Last spring Glenn Davis of Barberton, his school's only entrant, won the broad jump, 180-yard low hurdles and 220-yard dash, and finished fourth in the 100-yard dash, to personally hand the Magics the Class A crown. Davis did it with his right arm chained to a wide strap around his chest to prevent his shoulder from popping out of place.

The Barberton flash is now at Ohio State, where Coach Larry Snyder is adding the high hurdles to his events. Snyder said Davis was one of the best prospects the Bucks have acquired in a long time.

The Class B race was almost as fantastic as Davis' one-man show. Jim Steinhilber won the shotput, and Jim Stiger both the hurdles, for the 18 points Nevada needed to annex the championship. Thus, three youngsters of the more than 1,000 entrants dominated the scene. Other defending champions are: Class A baseball—Mansfield; Class B baseball—Waverly; four-man team golf—Columbus Aquinas; individual golf—Bob Shave and Jim Hildebrand of Willoughby; Tennis singles—Pat Arnold of Middletown; tennis doubles—Mac Moffett and Ken Rupp of Middletown.

Use Of Fire On Fencerows, Fields Rapped By Experts

COLUMBUS—About this time each year Ohio wildlife officials grow concerned because "too many people get the urge to start a fire" and such places as fencerows, stubble fields, roadsides, grassy fields and railroad margins feel the brunt of this burning. Some people think burning off controls serious insects and weeds.

Actually authorities of the U. S. Department of Agriculture make no mention of the use of fire in controlling harmful insects; good farming practices, however, are stressed. The use of insect and weed killing sprays, proper harvesting methods and crop rotations are used effectively in modern agriculture.

Long Term Bean Storage Decried

COLUMBUS (AP)—Lowell Folsom, grain marketing specialist at Ohio State University, says futures quotations do not favor long term storage of soybeans.

He said futures prices are progressively lower for summer and fall contracts, and reflect a relatively calm international situation, lower price support and increased soybean acreage this year. He explained that futures prices are what present conditions indicate the cash price for a crop probably will be in coming months.

Bread Cast Upon Waters Returns

SHERMAN, Tex. (AP)—It was a good deal, said Mrs. Roy Good, when she gave her husband's old clothes to a charity organization here. The Goods' home was destroyed here in a windstorm yesterday morning. One of those given clothing by the organization which Mrs. Good favored was storm victim Roy Good.

11 Die In Crash

TAIPEI (AP)—A Chinese Nationalist PBV amphibious plane crashed and burned trying to land in misty weather today, killing all 11 Chinese aboard.

Scientists believe that the first villages were set up in what is now Iraq about 7,000 years ago.

Ohio Wildlife experts say it is unfortunate this burning takes place about the same time that Ohio's first rabbit litters are born, during the entire month of April. Many young rabbits, still in the nest, are killed by these ground fires. Since the first litters of rabbits and the young they produce will make up a large percentage of this fall's bag, it is necessary that they be given as much protection as possible, they say, adding:

"Apparently farmers who burn have given little thought to the loss of wildlife and have no idea of the value of organic matter in the soil. Burning destroys materials in the upper soil layers that form humus. An accumulation of debris improves the water holding capacity of the soil and destroying this upper layer may increase the need for costly fertilizers. Metal and wooden fences, utility poles and guy wires are damaged extensively each year by burning highway berms and fencerows. "Burning has little or no practical control over dormant insects and live weed seeds. In fact, some woody plants like blackberry plants are encouraged by burning and potash added to the soil by burning, many times produces a more vigorous growth of certain weeds. Pests immediately occupy the bare spaces created by burning existing grasses and harmless plants."

Wildlife officials are urging farmers and others not to burn if they wish to be helpful to both their soil and their wildlife.

Coach Ed Dean's boys were paced by Bob Hunter who won the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes to garner 10 points for the Lions. Bad weather probably had a lot to do with some of the slow running times, Coach Dean said today. Summary of events:

Little Lady Tutor Saves Hulk of Man

DETROIT (AP)—John Church, 6-foot-4, match teacher, was fished from the bottom of the Durfee Intermediate swimming pool yesterday by 5-foot-2 Ann Braverman, a fellow teacher.

Church blacked out and sank while taking a dip with fellow teachers. Miss Braverman, a gym teacher, spotted him, hauled him to the surface and lifted him over the pool edge, where he was revived by artificial respiration.

Ailing Wynn Set Back To Cleveland

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Cleveland's Indians sent ailing pitcher Early Wynn to Cleveland before flying here today for their last two exhibition games.

Wynn first came down with influenza two weeks ago, but then recovered enough to pitch twice. After that he suffered a relapse and left the team.

Manager Al Lopez noted "this will probably set him back, but he can start working out Monday and he may be ready to pitch five or six days later."

The Tribe, idle today, plays the Milwaukee Braves tomorrow and Sunday and then moves to Cleveland to start defense of American League pennant Tuesday against the Chicago White Sox.

Bob Lemon, who will start against the Sox, is slated to work four innings here tomorrow. Mike Garcia will work four on Sunday.

The Indians lost to the New York Giants yesterday at Knoxville, Tenn., closing out the spring tour between the clubs at nine victories each.

New York won the last game, 6-5, scoring the clinching run on a wild pitch, allowing Ronnie Samford to make it home from third. Samford had singled and advanced a hit by Don Mueller.

The Giants rallied for four runs and tied the game in the eighth on a walk to Mueller, an error by Al Rosen, a fly by Monte Irvin, a single by Hank Thompson and a homer by Bobby Hofman.

Ohio Great Seal Scene Faces Probe

COLUMBUS (AP)—Four members of the Ohio House will investigate a charge in a resolution before the House that the scene of the Great Seal of Ohio, just north of Chillicothe, has been desecrated.

A resolution stating the land in front of Mt. Logan is being used as a dump was introduced by Rep. D. O. Taber (R-Gallia).

He was appointed yesterday by House Speaker Roger Cloud to look into the matter, along with Reps. Don Campbell (R-Athens), Loretta Woods (R-Scioto) and Paul Siple (D-Lawrence).

Spanking Is 'Cruel'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Singer Patti Taylor, 29, told Superior Court her trombonist husband Robert E. Pring Jr., 30, would turn her over his knee and spank her when she protested about his playing records too loudly in the early morning hours. She got a divorce decree on grounds of cruelty.

Only 3 Starting Pitchers Able To Go Nine Innings

The Associated Press
Only three of the 16 pitchers who probably will be on the mound in next week's major league openers have gone a full nine innings in this spring's exhibition games—and only one of the three came off with a victory.

Brooklyn's Carl Erskine and Philadelphia's Robin Roberts are the only National League openers to go all the way. In the American League, Cleveland's Bob Lemon is all by himself, although New York's Whitey Ford entered the ninth but left with nobody out in a losing decision.

Erskine alone won, shutting out Washington 6-0 with difficulty Wednesday.

Roberts went nine Sunday, but lost to Boston 4-2. Lemon missed against the New York Giants 5-1 Tuesday.

Here's what the probable opening day pitchers who saw action yesterday did:

Boston — Frank Sullivan went eight innings, allowing one hit in the first four frames, but missed the decision as Philadelphia won in the 10th 4-3.

Chicago — Virgil Trucks (19-12) went seven innings against St. Louis, left with a 6-5 lead after a four-run fourth in which the Cardinals Bill Virdon hit a three-run homer. Sox won in ninth 7-6.

Kansas City—Alex Kellner (6-17) went seven innings, gave up nine hits in 5-2 defeat by Norfolk of Class B Piedmont League.

Cincinnati — Art Fowler (12-10) worked last five innings but missed decision in 9-1 victory over Lynchburg, Class B Piedmont League.

Philadelphia — Robin Roberts (23-15) pitched seven innings, gave up six hits and left trailing 2-1 on Norm Zauchin's two-run homer as Phils beat Boston in 10th 4-3.

St. Louis — Brooks Lawrence gave up three runs in fifth before leaving with 4-3 lead over White Sox in game won by Chicago 7-6.

In other games yesterday, Baltimore beat Pittsburgh 2-1 and the Giants beat Cleveland 6-5 to end their exhibition series with nine victories apiece.

Man Rearrested In Wife's Death

WARREN (AP)—Sheriff T. Herbert Thomas last night re-arrested Ernest Wall, 48, in connection with the slaying of Wall's wife at their home in Masury.

The sheriff ordered Wall jailed again after a lie detector test at the prison farm in London, Ohio. The sheriff said he would present the evidence today to Prosecutor Charles Anderson.

Mrs. Mary Wall, 38, was found shot and beaten to death in the basement of her home March 21. Wall, who was arrested soon after the slaying and later released, said he was at work in a feed mill in Sharon, Pa., on March 21.

Solons Bushed After 5 Innings

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Congressional baseball teams wound up "spring training" last night by battling to an 8-8 tie. The game was called after five innings "because of fatigue."

Rep. Glenn Davis of Wisconsin pitched the route for the Republicans and contributed a double to his own cause.

Rep. Torbert MacDonald of Massachusetts held the Democratic mound for four innings, was bounced for Lud Ashley of Ohio, then was rushed back in by Manager Syd Herlong of Florida when Ashley filled the bases on walks.

Each team used just about all of its 18 players. Substitutions were fast and furious; at times it was anybody's guess who was hitting.

Autoist Killed

McARTHUR (AP)—Sam Leasure, 64, of Rt. 2, Laurelville, was killed yesterday when the car in which he was riding overturned after leaving a road in Eagle Twp., Vinton County.

The longest distance from home plate to center field in the American League is at Yankee Stadium—461 feet.

First Three Redleg Hurlers Given Nod

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Manager Birdie Tebbetts now has made up his mind on his pitchers for the first three games of the National League season — with certain reservations, of course. The reservations cover the weather and possible serious trouble the hurlers might encounter.

Tebbetts announced earlier that "sophomore" Art Fowler would open the season against the Chicago Cubs at Cincinnati Monday. He said today he'd send Gerry Staley against the Milwaukee Braves at Milwaukee Tuesday and would come back with Corky Valentine against the Cubs on Thursday at Cincinnati.

Staley and Joe Nuxhall were scheduled to pitch here today as the Redlegs get back into action against major league opposition by meeting the Washington Senators. They clubbed Lynchburg of the Class B Piedmont League 9-1.

Fowler turned in a fine five-inning pitching stint against the minor leaguers yesterday. He allowed only three harmless singles and struck out eight. He didn't walk a man.

Lynchburg got its lone run and five of its hits off rookie Pat Stantlebury in the first four innings.

The Reds, meanwhile, gave further indication they have found the hitting range although it was against minor league pitching. They banged out 14 hits and five of them were for extra bases. Two were home runs by Gus Bell and Jim Greengrass.

Novice Swimmer Corners 4 Titles

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Tall, trim Shelley Mann, a girl who couldn't swim a stroke five years ago, is likely to win four national titles by the time the 1955 Women's AAU Indoor meet ends here.

She took two yesterday, successfully defending in the 400-yard individual medley and stepping up for the first time as 100-yard freestyle champion.

This 17-year-old high school senior from Arlington, Va., who swims for the Walter Reed Hospital Swim Club of Washington, D. C., is favored to repeat in the 100-yard backstroke today and the 100-yard butterfly tomorrow.

'Tiger' Jones Risking Record

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Ralph (Tiger) Jones tonight risks his record of never having been knocked down against harder-hitting George Johnson, a counter puncher with a fast pair of hands.

Jones, a New Yorker noted for the way he keeps boring in on his opponents, was rated an 8 to 5 favorite over Johnson, of Trenton, N. J., for the ten-round middle-weight bout.

The fight will be nationally televised by NBC at 10 p. m., EST.

Warner Bros. Eyes TV Market

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Warner Bros. has joined the move of other film studios to get into television production.

Warners announced last night that its first TV project will be a series of aviation films titled "Men of the Sky." The color series will be prepared and produced by screenwriter Vincent Evans, a World War II lead bombardier on the famed Memphis Belle, who took part in the first bombings of Germany.

Where to Plant Ferns

By DEAN HALLIDAY
 Distributed by Central Press Association

MANY gardeners hesitate to plant ferns, fearing they are hard to grow. This actually is not the case although it is a rather common belief.

It is important, however, to use the right type of fern in the place selected for planting. Ferns such as the Common Polypody, Maidenhair, Splenwort and the Common Woodsia are ideal for the shaded rock garden. Rusty Woodsia and Purple Cliffbrake will thrive in the sunny rock garden. The Royal fern will grow in wet spots, providing it has sufficient sunlight.

Against a fence or wall, use Pellaea atropurpurea, or the climbing fern, Lygodium palmatum, but be sure to give the latter an acid soil.

Hop-Scotching Cop Plays Good Hunch

KENT (AP)—Because Police Sgt. Roy D. Thompson got a hunch while playing hop-scotch, a young man is in jail today charged with seven burglaries here.

Thompson was playing hop-scotch with his two young daughters on his day off when he saw a car pass his home. Something made him suspicious of the driver. He wrote the license number on the sidewalk with hop-scotch chalk.

A check showed the license number was registered to Jesse Guldridge Jr., 21, of Akron. Guldridge was out of jail on $5,000 bond on seven indictments of house burglary in adjacent Summit County.

Questioned by Kent police, he admitted seven burglaries in Kent.

People Asked To Report at Once Any Dog Bites

Dr. N. A. Dyer, County Health Commissioner Points Out Danger

With an increase in the number of dog bites reported to the Fayette County Health Department in the past few weeks, Dr. N. A. Dyer, county health commissioner, pointed out to the public today that all dog bites should be reported promptly to the health department.

This is necessary, he said, in order that the health department can investigate the case and have the animal confined for an observation period of ten (10) days. If during this period the dog becomes sick or acts suspicious, a veterinarian, or the health department, should be called immediately.

Through this period of observation it is possible to determine whether or not the dog will develop rabies. A dog that has bitten some one should never be killed, except on the advice of the health department or a veterinarian. Dr. Dyer stated.

Dr. Dyer also pointed out that all dog bites, or scratches, should be considered as potentially dangerous. The person bitten should consult his family physician as soon as possible for treatment.

Chance Seen

word about the Ferguson bill. This has irritated at least one member of the highway committee, Sen. William Tyrrell (R-Preb), who says the commission's silence is one of his reasons for supporting the bill.

OPPONENTS of the measure contend it will mean the end of future turnpikes in Ohio, including the proposed southwest-northeast turnpike from Cincinnati to Cincinnati with a spur to Toledo. An engineering survey on that project now is underway. Opponents of the bill contend future turnpike proposals would bog down in a legislative route-and-bonds committee to the end that no agreements could be reached.

Under present law, turnpike routes are selected by the director of highways with final approval by the governor—after a hearing.

The Ferguson bill would place the route decision in the hands of a committee made up of three senators, three representatives and one member appointed by the governor.

Under present law, the issuance of bonds to finance turnpike construction is the responsibility of the turnpike commission.

The Ferguson bill would hand the bond-issuing purse-strings to the same committee which would make the final decision on routes.

Under present law, according to an Ohio Supreme Court decision, the turnpike commission has the right to determine the type of construction it will use. For turnpike No. 1 across northern Ohio, it chose cement concrete. Under the revised Ferguson bill, the commission would be required to open bidding to other types of construction. To all practical purposes, that means asphalt.

A nine-hour inspection of Company M of the National Guard was held Thursday afternoon and evening at the Armory here.

Lt. Col. Daniel J. Smart of Ft. Mead, Md., conducted inspection of the 72-man unit. He first checked all administrative and supply records and maintenance of equipment. Then formal inspection of the ranks was followed by drill tests, a question and answer session and observation of training.

Rubber Workers Ending Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—A tentative agreement has been reached between CIO workers and the U. S. Rubber Co. to end a weeklong nationwide strike affecting 19 plants and some 33,000 employees.

A company spokesman said the pact probably would be signed today with the CIO United Rubber Workers and a back-to-work movement would start soon.

The workers walked out last Thursday, when their old contract expired, in a dispute over working conditions, vacations and holidays. Wages were not an issue.

Police And City Manager Confer

Plans Discussed For Improved Service

City Manager James F. Parkinson and Chief Vaiden Long held a conference with the members of the police department Thursday afternoon, one of a series of such meetings held, for further improving the service.

A number of matters pertaining to top service were discussed.

One of the first things discussed was the use of courtesy in dealing with the public, which had been stressed before, and the instructions are for courtesy at all times.

Parkinson stressed that courtesy is one of the most important qualifications of good police officers.

The importance of being alert at all times also was taken up with the policemen. They were told that police are not looking for trouble but to prevent it.

Parkinson also complimented the police for the good manner in which the department had been operated the last 30 days.

It was decided to give more attention to the double parking problem in the city, particularly during rush hours, and double parkers are to be ticketed.

It was pointed out that double parking seriously impedes traffic, particularly on through routes.

It was also stated that too many people are taking advantage of alley parking and allow vehicles to remain in alleys too long. This is to receive attention.

Other matters pertaining to continued first class service were also taken up at the conference.

Wool Thief Given Term In Jail Here

Amos Duncan, 20, was arrested by Sheriff Orland Hays and two charges of stealing wool from Kenneth Walters, of near Jeffersonville, were filed against him by the sheriff.

Two thefts one on March 2 and the other on April 2, were charged, and the wool had been sold for $90.88.

In municipal court, Judge Max G. Dice Friday fined Duncan $25 and costs and gave him 30 days in jail on each charge, but suspended $25 and costs and the 30 days in one case, pending good behavior and that Duncan repay to Walters the $90.88 received for the stolen wool.

Duncan is now serving his 30 days in the county jail.

4-H Club Activities

BUZZ'N DUZZ'N

Girls of the Buzz'n Duzz'n club talked about the good grooming clinic they attended last Saturday and then discussed health habits and their relation to good grooming when they held their fourth meeting of the year at the home of Joan DeWeese in Milledgeville.

The roll call was answered with a good health habit.

Helen Louise Sheeley gave the treasurer's report.

Mary Jo Minton, who joined the club at its last meeting, was appointed one of the recreation leaders.

The girls talked about their sewing projects and made plans for bringing their patterns to the next meeting, which will be held April 20 at the home of their advisor, Mrs. Jess Crago.

Plans were made for club representation at the officers and advisors training conference next Monday night.

SERVING CIRCUETTES

President Mary Ann Carr called the meeting to order at the home of Charlene Engle. During the business meeting, project books and charts were distributed. Nancy Stevenson was appointed club treasurer.
